Call Meeting to Order

Welcome Everyone / Introductions

Gina Leiby

-Sarah is unable to be here tonight. Please accept my apologies. I left the agenda at home.

Principal's Report:

Mr. Buterbaugh

-It's been a busy October. The 6th-7th grade haunted hallway went well. The administrators went through the haunted hallway, and it was fun! The Bates Motel went really well. We even had our own hayride.

-The payment should be a little more organized with the payment, more streamlined.

-Book fair in two weeks. They're pushing the e-wallet this year.

-We have a vaping presentation next week.

-Conferences are coming up in a couple weeks. It's student led conferences.

-Grades are wrapping up next Friday.

-A walkathon is coming up in November, an evacuation drill in November. We go to the gym to practice an evacuation.

-A math interventionist started last week. We have after school tutoring after school. The tutoring is 4 days a week.

-The district asked that any PTL events for the year be on the district calendar by November 1st, and let them know what the goal and budget is.

Teacher Representative's Report:

Mrs. Ventura

-It's my 16th year here at Northley teaching 6th grade.

-The students were super excited to go to the haunted hallway and told me all about it on Monday.

-The book fair is next week. The reading teachers take them during class. Sixth goes first, then 7th, then 8th.

-The 6th grade ELA teachers also do monthly book orders.

--The Thanksgiving can food drive is coming up through student council, November 8-16. Students can bring in non-perishable food items, and it is a homeroom competition.

-Ms. Ritz is in charge of the can food drive. It goes to Penn Delco families.

-Monday conferences are during the day and Tuesday during the day and at night.

-The conferences are student led. The students lead the conferences. They prepare a portfolio.

-Two fundraisers for PBIS- Freddy's fundraiser- November 21st.

Walkathon- $1-$5 Get the kids out and walking. It's the half day before Thanksgiving. There's lessons on core value. This month is acceptance.

Treasurer's Report:

Alisha Mancinelli

Official report is still pending. We are currently going through all the money right now.

-As far as payments, we are going to work on a better process to streamline everything. We're thinking about doing it during lunch, having a list of names and students and checking names off as they pay.

Business:

1. Fall Event Debrief

- a. Haunted Hayride (8th Grade)-The haunted hayride was a great event. The kids were well-behaved and had fun! It was a hectic and a busy night.
- b. Haunted Hallway/Dance (6th and 7th Grade)-Theresa- Thank you to everyone who helped out. We had 325 kids. We had a lot of helpers, people who decorated, concessions, the scenes, people dressed up. Thank you to staff and teachers also who helped.
 - The registration table was a little hectic so we'll work on that for next year.
 - All the water bottles got a little hectic. Water bottles were everywhere and kids were getting each other wet. We may give tickets next year for one drink and one snack, so it's not as hectic.

2. 8th Grade Information

- a. Winter Formal – 12/8-
- b. Bingo Night – 3/8
- c. Spring Formal – 5/17

3. November Conferences – Dinner for staff- We are providing dinner on November 21st. Around 3 PM would be a good time for dinner.

-No meeting in December.
