Call Meeting to Order

Welcome Everyone / Introductions

Sarah Williams

Principal's Report:

Mr. Buterbaugh

-Thanks for coming out in the rainy weather tonight!

-As I'm sure you have heard, the solar eclipse is coming up on Monday, April 8th. Dr. Steinhoff send out a message today stating that all students in grades kindergarten through eighth will get a pair of viewer glasses since their dismissals will be during the time of the eclipse.

-The PSSA's are coming up on April 24th, and this year they will be digital for the first time. The students will get a different kind of candy every test day, and are told to eat a good breakfast at home or at school and to do their best.

-Hall passes are now digital, and students have already started using them, but they officially launch on April 15th.

Teacher Representative's Report:

Ms Dwyer

The NJHS ceremony is coming up on May 8th. The ceremony starts at 6:30, but students should arrive by 5:45. All current NJHS members are also expected to attend. The dress code is wearing the approved colors: white, blue, black, gray, or khaki. Options for what to wear are dress shirt and tie, dress pants, skirts and dresses that are in dress code, rompers, and cardigans. Students may not wear denim, sneakers, sweats, or gym clothes. Students who were inducted last year have to remain in dress code and no sweats, sneakers or leggings.
