GOOD TO KNOW

Weekly Update from Superintendent
Dr. Mary Catherine Reljac

ROYAL AFFAIR

The Fox Chapel Area School District held its homecoming festivities on Friday and Saturday, starting with the community carnival, followed by the football game that pitted the Foxes and the Penn Hills Indians. At halftime, Christian Dantey and Ava Persichetti were crowned homecoming king and queen. On Saturday, students gathered in their finest for a “Starry Night”-themed dance. What a wonderful weekend for our community!

STUDENTS INSPIRED TO BATTLE BULLYING

On Monday, Dorseyville Middle School students heard from John Halligan, an international speaker and author whose son took his life in 2003 after being bullied by his peers.

Care Solace has a collection of life-saving resources in their Suicide Prevention Kit to empower and support the community throughout the month.

September is Suicide Awareness Month, which highlights the importance of mental health for those facing suicidal thoughts.

The kit, which includes resources for parents, can be found here: <https://www.caresolace.org/suicide-prevention-month-resources-for-schools>.

Winter sports physicals will be held October 7, and winter sports registration is due November 8. More information is available at <https://fcasdathletics.org/sports-registration-information/>.
