

U.S. Air Force JROTC CA-933

Leadership Shadow Week

Revised: 20190225

Details:

* Shadow Week is offered as an opportunity to gain valuable hands-on leadership experience based on the roles of specific cadet corps positions.

* Freshman, Sophomore, and Junior cadets will have the opportunity to shadow one of the following positions: (STC)

- Group Commander
- Vice Group Commander -
- Executive Officer (2)
- Command Chief (2)
- Operations Commander
- Support Commander
- Squadron Commander (2)
- Flight Commander (9)

What Will This Opportunity Entail?

* Freshman, sophomore, and junior cadets will shadow the cadet who holds each position listed above.

* Shadow cadets will be subject to assisting, leading, and supporting alongside commanders on their decisions, actions, and proposals.

Timeline:

* Shadow cadets should expect to follow commanders for the length of one full school week. (STC)

- Monday (Day 1): Shadowing cadets will meet who they will be shadowing in the S-14 briefing room at lunch. At this time it would be the job of commanders to get to know their "little brother" or "little sister". i.e. Name? Goals? Personality? Hobbies? Expectations?
- Tuesday (Day 2): Upperclassmen will continue to mentor and meet their shadow their prospective cadet at lunch in the S-14 briefing room.
- Wednesday (Day 3): Commanders are to have their shadow partner attend a scheduled staff meeting. Both are to collaborate in order to brief the corps commanders of events, notifications, issues, etc.
- Thursday (Day 4): Commanders are to have their shadowers complete their last leadership session and reflect on the week at lunch in the S-14 briefing room.
- Friday (Day 5): Commanders will have their shadowers join them for a dessert celebration/graduation on behalf of the hard of work all cadets. who've participated.

(STC) = Subject to Change