

Good afternoon, Eagle Families,
Our students continue to work hard in class, and our staff is impressed with their work ethic and how they look out for one another. They are truly becoming a close-knit group of students, and it's wonderful to see. I want to take a moment to highlight the importance of consistent attendance. Research shows that students attending school regularly are more likely to perform well academically, stay engaged, and develop good habits throughout their educational journey. While we understand that things come up throughout the year, such as illnesses or family emergencies, we encourage everyone to prioritize attendance whenever possible. Consistency in attendance is one of the best markers of student success and growth.

Next week, we have an exciting field trip planned for Thursday, October 10, as we'll be visiting the Johnson Family Farm. While there, students will explore the family gardens and learn all about pumpkins. At the end of the visit, each student will get to pick out a pumpkin to take home!

We're looking forward to these exciting opportunities for our students. Also, please note that next week is a four-day week, with no school on Friday.

I hope you all have a great weekend! Remember to get outside and enjoy the beautiful fall weather, rest, and find a good book to read. See you all next week!

October is going to be a busy month! We have 3 field trips, conferences, a few birthdays, and a candy filled holiday;) I'm so proud that even with the excitement students are able to stay focused and get their school work done! This week 3rd grade students worked on 3 digit addition, while second grade focused on mental math subtraction. First grade students worked hard on learning different strategies to add and subtract within 10 and kinder students worked on number recognition (writing and direct correspondence). We were also lucky enough to have a mini performance of the The Little Pigs, enjoy an amazing music lesson, go to the library, and get out the wiggles in PE. Next week we will be walking to the Johnson Farm on Thursday, and no school for students on Friday. Have a great weekend!
