Hello Band Families!

MSBOA Solo & Ensemble Festival

Deadline to Register = Friday, Oct. 18, 2024

Date of Festival = Saturday, Feb. 1, 2025

Important Announcement for 7th & 8th Graders:

We are thrilled to announce that registration is now OPEN for the MSBOA Solo & Ensemble Festival! This is an exciting opportunity for our students to showcase their individual musical talents, gain valuable feedback from professional adjudicators, and grow as musicians.

Whether students perform a solo or as part of an ensemble, this festival is a fantastic chance to develop confidence, refine skills, and celebrate their musical achievements. I truly believe that EVERY student should consider participating in this event! It's a rewarding experience that helps students grow both musically and personally.

Here's why your student should participate:

- Personal Growth: It challenges them to push their musical abilities and set new goals.
- Performance Experience: Students gain valuable experience performing for an adjudicator in a supportive setting.

- Feedback from Professionals: They'll receive detailed evaluations and suggestions to help them improve.
- Fun Collaboration: For those who choose to participate in an ensemble, it's a great way to work together with friends and make music as a team!

- Event Date: Saturday, February 1, 2025
- Location: Franklin High School, Livonia
- Registration Deadline: Friday, October 18, 2024
- Detailed Information: All information about the S&E Festival can be found at this link: MSBOA Solo & Ensemble Festival

If your student is interested, please let me know as soon as possible so we can start the registration process. I am happy to help guide them through selecting their pieces, preparing for the performance, and offering any extra help they may need. The Parent Letter and Registration Forms are attached to this email.

Thank you!
