A Message From Our Head of School

Dear Linden Hall family,

As the academic year commenced at Linden Hall School, we were excited to welcome students from more than 15 countries and 10 states. The diversity and vibrancy that our students bring to campus have created an electrifying atmosphere, reflecting the global reach and inclusive nature of our community.

The campus is alive with energy as students and faculty alike share an enthusiasm for learning and growth. Our dedicated teachers and staff have worked tirelessly to ensure a smooth start, fostering an environment where every student feels welcomed, seen, and supported.

We began the year with a series of cherished traditions. Our opening programs, including a robust orientation program, the gathering of the entire community for Convocation, and the beloved Lotus Walk, set the tone for a year of academic and personal growth. These events not only mark the beginning of a new chapter but also reinforce the traditions that define Linden Hall's unique spirit.

This year, we are particularly excited about the expansion of our academic programs. We have solidified our dual enrollment opportunities, allowing our students to earn college credits while still in high school. Additionally, we are offering micro-credentials, enabling students to gain specialized skills and knowledge in various fields. These new initiatives are designed to enhance our students' educational experiences and better prepare them for their future endeavors.

Our arts and athletic programs are flourishing, offering students a well-rounded education that nurtures both their creative and physical development. Our arts program continues to provide a rich array of opportunities in visual arts, music, and theater, allowing students to explore their talents and express themselves in various media. Our athletic program is equally robust, featuring competitive teams in multiple sports, as well as fitness and wellness activities that promote a healthy lifestyle. Both programs are supported by passionate instructors and coaches dedicated to helping students achieve their personal best. Through participation in the arts and athletics, our students learn valuable life skills such as teamwork, discipline, and perseverance, which complement their academic pursuits and contribute to their overall growth and success.

As we look ahead, we remain committed to maintaining strong connections with our alumnae. Their achievements and contributions continue to inspire our current students, reminding us of the enduring impact of a Linden Hall education.

We are enthusiastic about the possibilities that this year holds and are confident that, together, we will achieve great things. Here's to a year filled with learning, growth, and unforgettable experiences at Linden Hall School!

Warm regards,

Dr. Nan Wodarz
Head of School

Head of School Search Update

The search for Linden Hall's next Head of School is well underway, with The Education Group at the helm of this important endeavor. Throughout the summer, Katherine Stuart and Bob Kirkpatrick have been diligently reviewing resumes and engaging with potential candidates to discuss the unique opportunities and values that Linden Hall offers.

Our dedicated and thoughtful Search Committee will soon begin the process of screening candidates and narrowing the list to six or seven promising individuals. These candidates will then be interviewed via Zoom, allowing the Committee to further evaluate their fit and qualifications. From this pool, the three or four most highly qualified applicants will be selected to proceed to the next stage.

The finalists will be invited to visit campus, where they will participate in a comprehensive interview process. During this time, they will meet with a diverse array of stakeholder groups, ensuring that the perspectives of our entire school community are considered in this critical decision.

The Committee is fully committed to finding the right leader to succeed Dr. Nan and ensuring a smooth transition of leadership. We are excited about the future of Linden Hall and look forward to introducing our next Head of School to you.

Senior Awards & Recognitions

Valedictorian — Sara Holler

Attending Georgetown University, attended Linden Hall for five years

"Your life is your own, and even though people may act like they know what is best for you, they don't. Only you can know what you are truly thinking and feeling. By controlling the narrative of your life, you can decide how much power to give others, and ultimately gain the confidence to live life the way you choose."

Salutatorian — Tenra Adams

Attending Washington and Lee University, attended Linden Hall for six years

"Embrace your journey and savor the present moment, for it's in these moments that we are truly living."

Linden Hall Medal & Linden Legend — Tenra Adams

Attending Washington and Lee University, attended Linden Hall for six years

This is the highest individual award bestowed by the school. It is given to the student who best exemplifies our values: scholarly achievement, character development, cultural awareness, and physical wellness.

Head of School Award — Amy Dong

Attending University of Rochester, attended Linden Hall for three years

This award is given to a senior in recognition of extraordinary loyalty, compassion, and service to Linden Hall. The recipient leads by example, is highly respected by faculty and students, and leaves an indelible impact on our school.

Spirit of Linden Hall — Hayden Augustin-Laurent

Attending University of Massachusetts Amherst, attended Linden Hall for four years

The recipient of this award best represents the "Spirit of Linden Hall" as indicated in our Statement of Community: truthful, fair, compassionate, respectful, and a contributor to our school and community.

Linden Hall Legend — Halee Morrissey

Attending Drexel University, attended Linden Hall for six years

This special award is given to a student who began her Linden Hall journey in the sixth grade and remained an LH student through graduation. Although this year's class had no formal Linden Legends who attended for all seven years, we were proud to name Tenra and Halee as such given their six-year tenure at our school.

Academics in Review

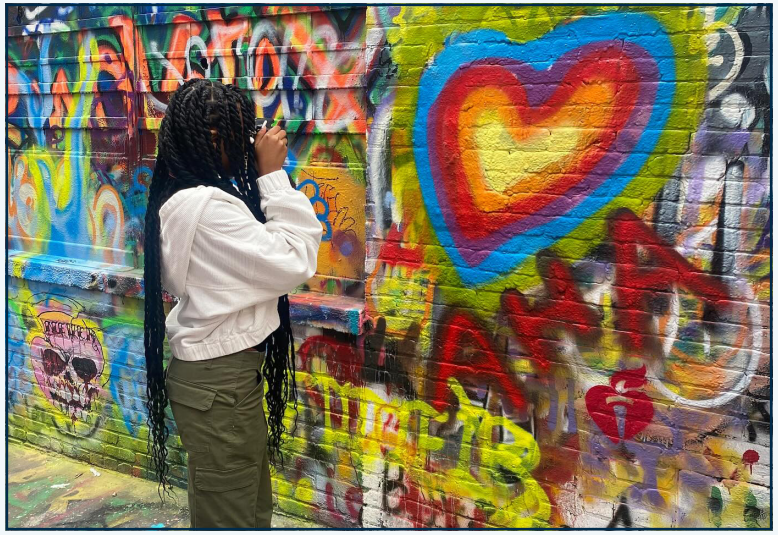

At Linden Hall, learning is an adventure that extends far beyond the classroom walls. This year, our dedicated teachers opened up a world of discovery, offering endless opportunities for students to expand their knowledge, explore new perspectives, and dive into exciting real-world experiences.

At the beginning of the year, Mr. Novick's AP World History class students practiced the art of historical cartography by drawing the early kingdoms of Southeast Asia over a modern map of the region. The project was part of a larger introductory unit in which students engaged with the social, political, religious, and economic trends that developed across Eurasia and the Americas between 1200 and 1450 CE.

Outside the classroom, photography students explored and created their own works of urban art in the harbor of Baltimore, Maryland. During a field trip to the National Aquarium and Graffiti Alley, students experimented with different types of photography in new environments and took dozens of dazzling pictures. Another creative learning experience was our annual Image and Word festival, during which over 40 Linden Hall community members gathered in an auditorium at Penn Cinema to participate in the culmination of Mr. Hondares' "visual literature" course.

In the sciences, Mr. Ricafort's chemistry students conducted an experiment exploring the periodic law. They tested the reactivity and properties of chlorine, bromine, and iodine by adding samples of halogen solutions to different test tubes, as well as different potassium halides, silver nitrate, and ammonia water. Their experimental additions revealed many interesting chemical reactions and helped provide a comprehensive understanding of halogen characteristics and reactivity series. In biology, Mr. Lear's biology students spent three days presenting detailed projects about invasive species from around the world. They proposed solutions for how to effectively control their chosen species while minimizing harm to local environments.

In physics, Ms. McCole's eighth-grade science class tested their "Shelter" projects, in which students attempted to either build a shelter that could prevent an ice cube from melting when exposed to heat or construct an insulated space with maximal internal temperature. A week after conducting their initial experiments, students hosted a Gallery Walk at which they presented their findings with their classmates and other students, faculty, and staff.

All these enriching experiences reflect our commitment to fostering a love of learning that extends far beyond the traditional classroom setting.

> Linden Hall has been an amazing school to attend. I have been given the opportunity to try so many different activities and develop a love for the arts, athletics, academics, etc. I have amazing teachers and faculty who support me, and despite challenges, I know I will be prepared for my future.

Arts in Review

Our students achieved excellence in music, theater, visual arts, and more this year. In October, our young musicians dazzled audiences during our annual Fall Concert. A month later, students showcased their thespian abilities during our Fall Play, Girls in the Boat. The play's narrative is based on the story of the US Olympic Women's rowing team and follows a group of strong, fiery young women fighting discrimination and prejudice to compete in the male-dominated sport of rowing and becoming the most winning sports team in American history.

Near the end of the first semester, our annual Vespers performance brought together hundreds of community members for this beloved Linden Hall tradition in the Moravian Church. The program involved a series of live musical and dramatic reading performances by Linden Hall students, including the reading of three original student poems. Just before the holidays, our annual caroling activity allowed students to fill the streets of Lititz with the enchanting melodies of classic Christmas carols.

In mid-winter, Linden Hall Orchestra members Nicole '27, Cassie '25, Yuna '24, Sara '24, and Jessica '27 attended the LLMEA High School Orchestra Festival at Ephrata Area High School. They met with over 200 musicians from nearly 30 local high schools to put on a concert in the evening after rehearsing for just one day. Yuna performed with the Sinfonia, Cassie and Sara performed with the Philharmonic, and Nicole and Jessica performed with the Festival Strings.

Linden Hall had a great showing at the Shakes-Peers Festival, competing with four other high schools. Andrianna '26 placed second in the monologue portion of the competition, and Sophie '26 was in the winning scene group. The competition was later featured on local television news network FOX43. A short time afterward, five of our singers, Anastasia ’26, Rory ’26, Natasha ’25, Kristýna ’25, & Sophie ’26, were selected to participate in the Lebanon Valley College Honors Choir. The group spent the day rehearsing with LVC Assistant Professor Kyle Zeuch and 140 other singers across Lancaster and Lebanon counties.

In April, our theater department put on the musical Alice by Heart. In this play, a group of London citizens hides from the blitzkrieg in a rundown London Tube station. A young girl — in refusing to accept her best friend Alfred’s tuberculosis diagnosis — tries to keep spirits high by telling the classic tale of Alice in Wonderland, which she has memorized.

Soon after the musical, members of our community enjoyed the 2024 Arts Showcase, which consisted of our Spring Concert and 27th Annual Art Show. The concert featured many outstanding performances, and during the art show our student artists dazzled guests by exhibiting their masterpieces of painting, sculpture, and photography. Congratulations to Amy ‘24 for winning our People’s Choice Award for Best in Show for her piece, “Vibrance”!

> The Arts program has given me the confidence to push my creative boundaries. Whether it’s painting, sculpture, or theater, I’ve had the opportunity to explore so many forms of art in a way that inspires me.

Athletics in Review

Linden Hall students pursue excellence in many popular sports, including equestrian, swimming, and volleyball. One of our fall highlights was the varsity volleyball team's Dig Pink game. Dig Pink is an annual fundraiser hosted by numerous high school volleyball teams to fight against breast cancer. All proceeds are donated to Help the Fight, a nonprofit organization based in Lancaster, PA. Many parents, faculty, staff, and students came out to support the Lady Lions during this special evening.

Later in the fall, we celebrated Manning '24, Zoya '26, Maya '25, and Lily '28 for competing at the IEA hunt seat show at Swan Lake Stables. Our High School team, which included Manning, Zoya, and Maya, placed 2nd overall, earning the title of Reserve High Point Team. Moreover, Maya placed 2nd overall in the High School division, gaining the Reserve High Point Rider designation. Finally, our Middle School team, of which Lily was a member, competed without a full roster yet still placed 3rd in the competition overall.

Just before fall break, Linden Hall hosted nine other teams on campus for our annual home IEA hunt seat horse show. Two hundred rides took place over eight hours, and at the end of the day, the Upper School team emerged as Reserve High Point Team, meaning they had the second-highest point total among the ten teams. Highlights of the day included:

Manning '24 — 6th
Lily '28 — 4th on fences and 6th on flat
Zoya '26 — 5th and 3rd

Zoya, Tori ‘27, and Mandy ‘26 — 3rd
Maya ‘25 — 3rd and 2nd

And finally, the big win of the day for Rose ‘25, with 1st place in her first-ever show. Rose would go on to win 5th in the nation at IEA Nationals in Tryon, North Carolina.

In addition to recognizing seniors Sara and Yuna for their dedication and hard work during the fall varsity tennis season, we were proud to feature Hayden during our varsity basketball senior night. Moreover, in swimming, we were so proud of Tenra for winning the Lancaster-Lebanon League Championship in the 100-yard freestyle, 2nd place in the 50 freestyle, 2nd place in the 200 medley relay, and 5th place in the 200 freestyle relay. Tenra was the high point scorer for Warwick at the PIAA District 3 Championships, and the only female from the Warwick team to qualify for the State Championships for the second year in a row.

Our continued partnership with Warwick School District allows us to offer several additional athletic opportunities to our students. Madi ’25 and ASSIST student, Leni ’26, excelled in playing lacrosse on the Warwick junior varsity team, proudly winning their final game of the season. Moreover, Anastasia ‘26, Andrianna ‘26, and Melody ’27 had a phenomenal track and field season through the district’s co-op program.

> “I would not be who I am today without my years at Linden Hall. Being surrounded by so many amazing women was foundational in my formative years. I saw women lead in a variety of ways without fear of failure — from athletics, to the arts, to academics, to community involvement. I am a confident, secure leader in my community because of the skills, knowledge, wisdom, and mentorship I received at Linden Hall.”

Student Life

Just before the beginning of the academic year, students, faculty, and staff represented Linden Hall during Nonprofit Sponsorship Night at a Lancaster Barnstormers game. In addition to our mascot, Lindy, throwing out the first pitch, the afternoon included a formal on-field recognition and the announcement of a few "fast facts" about our school.

Our ninth-grade class enjoyed their three-day field trip in September. During their adventures, they enjoyed team-building activities and ziplining at Black Rock Retreat in Quarryville. They also hiked five miles on the Mason-Dixon Trail near Airville — even digging up a few forest critters. They finished off the excitement with a trip to Climbers' Run Nature Preserve in Pequea, where they made seed packets of native plants and conducted stream studies.

Homecoming was a night to remember. We are so proud of the tenth grade for putting together such an amazing masquerade dance, during which our students mingled with the boys from the Church Farm School. Moreover, our all-school trip to Washington, DC, offered an incredible day of exploration and learning in the nation's capital. On this special day, our entire student body and faculty embarked on a day-long excursion to visit various Smithsonian museums, art galleries, and monuments.

At the end of October, we celebrated Gretna Day, one of Linden Hall's most beloved traditions. During the celebration, all students, faculty, and staff spent the day hiking and roller skating at Mt. Gretna. We are so grateful to the New England Chapter of the Alumnae Association for sponsoring this event.

Students and staff competed in the yearly Turkey Trot, earning points for their respective Blue and White teams. Furthermore, just before Winter Break, our sixth and seventh grade students took a field trip to see the 2023 Christmas show, The First Noel, at the American Music Theater in Lancaster.

As the weather began to warm up, the class of 2025 prepared for our annual Junior Auction, which presented students, faculty, and staff with the chance to bid on dozens of exciting donated prizes, including a delectable chocolate cake baked by Mrs. Workman, voice lessons with Nurse Cyndy, a professional photoshoot done by Manning '24, and much more! As in years past, the bidding was lively from the start, with several items quickly rising to well over $100. By the end of the auction, the junior class had raised over $4,200 to support their class' activities.

Toward the end of the year, our students danced the night away at the prom. Linden Hall brought glamour to Rock Lititz for a night of enchantment and memories. With elegant gowns and dazzling smiles, every moment was picture-perfect.

Students, faculty, and staff also had an amazing time during the 2024 Spring Fling. A huge thank you to the Parents' Association for sponsoring this fantastic event, which included bingo, cornhole toss, balloon animals, limbo, snow cones, Jenga, and more.

In the last month of the academic year, the class of 2024 visited Philadelphia for their senior trip. The students explored several well-known destinations in Center City and beyond, including the Art Museum, City Hall, Reading Terminal Market, Chinatown, Christ Church and Elfreth's Alley in Old City. It was the perfect capstone trip to close out the cohort's high school experience!

> "There's always something fun happening at Linden Hall! From weekend trips to movie nights and school-wide events, it's easy to make amazing memories with friends."

Student Highlight: Nali '25

Linden Hall maintains an unparalleled legacy of drawing in top-performing students from around the world. Why do the best students continue to choose our school? We interviewed rising senior Nali '25 to learn all about her experiences at Linden Hall.

Tell us about yourself.

My name is Nalini, and I come from the Commonwealth of Dominica, located in the Lesser Antilles of the Caribbean. I am currently 17 years old and enjoy doing a variety of things, but to summarize, I enjoy music and playing different drums, such as the congas and the acoustic drums; athletics, with my favorite sports being basketball and volleyball; growing and taking care of plants, including my own Marigolds. Finally, studying the human brain, which has driven my desire to become a neurosurgeon. I grew up in a country with a very vibrant culture, which has cultivated within me skills in music, dance, performance, and drama. These are evident when I perform on stage, which I have been doing for the past four years.

In what activities do you participate at Linden Hall?

At Linden Hall, I take part in many activities and clubs. In my eleventh-grade class, I currently serve as Treasurer, and I strive to continue being a leader for my class in the upcoming school year, when I move on to twelfth grade. I am a percussionist in the Linden Hall Orchestra and went all the way to Palmyra High School this year to perform at the LLMEA Band Festival with the wind ensemble. While one of my favorite clubs is Club Med, I am also a member of the Linden Hall DECA Chapter, the Eco Coalition, in which I am an officer for student outreach, and the Black Alliance Club. During the fall, I trained and competed in the Varsity Cross Country and Volleyball teams, and during the Winter, I played on the Varsity and Junior Varsity Basketball team, for which I served as the captain. In the spring, I performed in the Spring Musical, Alice by Heart, with the pit orchestra as one of the three drummers, which was both a new and exciting opportunity. My experience and practice with drums are not only limited to the Orchestra; I am also part of the newly formed Linden Hall Punk band and take private lessons with our Orchestra Director and Music Instructor, Miss Dumm. She pushes me to play challenging pieces and she inspired me to learn one of the hardest songs I have come across: "Toxicity" by System of a Down.

I am a boarder here at Linden Hall, which means I get to enjoy the academic and residential aspects of the school. Outside of school, I get to enjoy every day with my wonderful friends, who find a way to make every new week one filled with hilarious and unforgettable memories.

What is your favorite class at Linden Hall?

My favorite class here is Anatomy & Physiology, which has taught me a great deal about the human body and provided me with the opportunity to dissect a cat cadaver.

What is your favorite memory from your first year at Linden Hall, and why?

One of my favorite experiences during my first year has been the Blue & White Week Talent Show performance my friends and I put together. We stole the show and racked up enough points for the Blue Team to claim another epic win this year. Our choreography to "Finesse" by Bruno Mars is one I will probably never forget, as we always get to bring it back whenever the song plays at school social gatherings.

In your view, what makes Linden Hall so great, and why?

Linden Hall has been such a wonderful place to me. While this school is filled with resolute students and staff, the utmost best thing about this school is the robust system of support that is present all around. All of us here at Linden Hall are encouraged to express ourselves and strive for greatness. This can be seen all throughout the school, from my teachers constantly encouraging me to do new things that seemed impossible, to my friends applauding each other for accomplishments big and small. This school will do nearly anything to support its students, like bringing my friends to a recording studio to record a new song, providing students with an opportunity to attain their private pilot's license, and so much more. I deeply appreciate the firm foundation of support present here at Linden Hall.

Exploring the Treasures of Linden Hall's Archives

Written by Linden Hall's Student Journalist, Emily Kwon '25

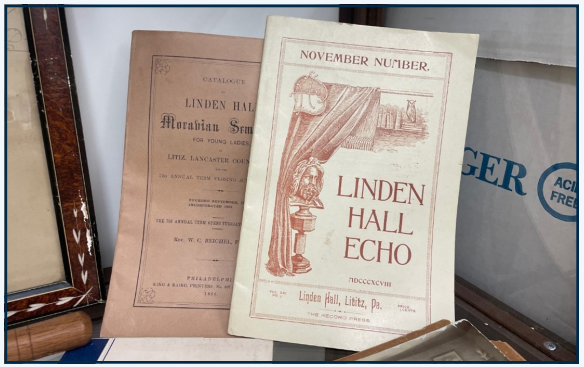

Where are Linden Hall's legacy and memories preserved? The answer lies in the third-floor halls of the academic building, in the school archives. The school has amassed an array of artifacts over hundreds of years, thanks to the generous donations of Linden Hall alumnae and community members. To gather these items in one location, Distinguished Alumna Joey Yocum '59 founded the Linden Hall archives. This extensive collection includes items such as yearbooks, photographs, invoices, event programs, and other artifacts that bridge the Linden Hall experience from past to present and celebrate student achievements and milestones.

The repository is maintained by the Alumnae Association and student archivists. Each year, Linden Hall selects two or three dedicated student archivists whose duties range from organizing and categorizing donated items to researching information about alumnae and their time on campus. In the 2023–24 academic year, two Linden Hall student archivists, Rachel '25 and Vivian '27, have worked to assist the Alumnae Relations office with the school archives.

Regarding her experiences working as a student archivist, Vivian '26 remarked, "My favorite aspect of the archivist position is looking back on all the memories the girls had and learning what it was like to be a Linden Hall student in years past. I have learned so much about the school, especially the history of our traditions. I've also learned much about what the girls were like in previous years."

Rachel '25 shared, "My favorite aspect of this position is seeing how past students grew, and how they achieved greater things each year they attended school. I have learned several interesting facts about Linden Hall since beginning this work. For instance, our alma mater was written by two alums: the music in 1924 by Myra Conlin Clarke and the words by Helen Reinhard McKay in 1927. Moreover, the Linden Hall Echo was once Lititz's town newspaper before regular newspapers were popularized."

Each artifact preserved in the Linden Hall archives tells a fascinating narrative about our school's educational achievements and 278-year legacy. Linden Hall greatly appreciates the efforts of our student archivists, alumnae, and the Alumnae Relations office in diligently preserving the rich history of our school.

2023 Fall Gala — A Night for the Blue & White

Our fall gala fundraiser, A Night for the Blue & White, was a phenomenal success. Over 100 attendees helped raise money to support the tuition assistance program at Linden Hall. To quote one attendee, "A Night for the Blue & White was one of the highlights of my fall season. What a unique opportunity to support a school that means so much to me!"

A Night for the Blue & White was held on November 10 at Lancaster Country Club. Arriving guests enjoyed a complimentary cocktail hour in the club's beautiful East and West lounges, mingling with our Board of Trustees and Head of School, Dr. Nan Wodarz. Throughout the hour, student musicians serenaded attendees with a variety of beautiful musical pieces.

Following cocktail hour, the main ballroom doors opened to reveal an ornately decorated reception space that featured a variety of silent auction and raffle items, a DJ, and heavy hors d'oeuvres. During the reception, Dr. Nan addressed guests and provided updates regarding our school's strategic and academic initiatives. Perhaps the high point of the reception was the paddle raise, during which participants raised a hand to "pledge" their support for Linden Hall.

After the closing of the auction and the announcement of raffle winners, guests departed knowing they had made an important difference in the lives of our students. By attending the gala, they were supporting our tuition assistance program, helping to make Linden Hall more accessible to deserving students seeking a world-class education.

Many thanks to our board, faculty, staff, families, and attendees for making A Night for the Blue & White such a success. Linden Hall thrives because of your unwavering support!

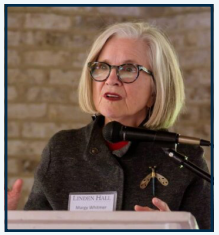

Welcoming Home Our Alumnae

In mid-April, we were excited to welcome many of our alumnae back to campus for Reunion Weekend. This year's reunion highlighted members of all graduating classes ending in 4 or 9, with guests from as far back as the class of 1954!

The festivities began on Friday afternoon with Senior Tea, during which our alums gathered with the class of 2024 to discuss their experiences at Linden Hall. In the evening, visitors gathered in the school lounge for a cocktail hour with Linden Hall faculty and staff, then attended our Spring Musical, Alice by Heart. The final event of the evening was a pizza party in Honeycutt Hall, sponsored by the Alumnae Association.

Reunion Weekend continued Saturday morning with guided tours of the Evita Allen Academic Center and gymnasium, led by several student ambassadors. A solemn service in Mary Dixon Chapel followed the tours, highlights of which included performances from our student bell choir, our student-led group "Musea," and words from both Dr. Nan and our chaplain, Mr. Denny Foreman.

Following the chapel service, guests reminisced with their Linden Hall sisters during Alumnae Brunch. At the end of the meal, the Alumnae Association honored Margy Whitmer '70 as our 2024 Distinguished Alumna for her global contributions to society by producing and directing the hit show, "Mr. Rogers' Neighborhood," along with other associated productions.

Welcoming home our alumnae is one of the most sacred traditions at Linden Hall, and we are so glad that this year's reunion was such a success. Many thanks to all who attended, as well as those who helped with the planning, including our Alumnae Association and our hard-working staff. Linden Hall continues to achieve its mission due to your generous support.

Summer at Linden Hall 2024

Summer at Linden Hall 2024 was our most successful yet! During this year's camp series, we hosted the always-popular Wizarding School, as well as World Travelers and Equestrian Camp.

Wizarding School continues to be well-attended year after year. Inspired by the Wizarding World of J.K. Rowling and the Harry Potter series, for one week Linden Hall is transformed into the American Wizarding School. Campers are sorted into one of four Houses named for the first four Heads of School at Linden Hall. Participants have time to bond with their housemates and compete together to earn House points.

This year, Wizarding School attendees took classes, such as Potion Making, Nature Studies, Transformative Spells, and the Making of Magical Objects. Moreover, they played spellbinding games and created magical crafts, even venturing into town one afternoon — just like visiting Hogsmeade!

During World Travelers Week, campers traversed the globe without leaving Linden Hall! Each day, the girls explored a different continent and learned all about the cultures and traditions from featured countries. During the day, they rotated through a variety of stations, such as crafts, games, holidays, languages, folk music, and more. Participants received a stamp on their passports after completing each hands-on activity to show what they learned and where they traveled.

Equestrian Camp, now in its second consecutive year, encompasses a variety of riding and horsemanship learning opportunities. This year, in addition to two riding lessons per day, campers attended local field trips, including a tack shop visit and a trip to a miniature horse farm. Presentations from a horse chiropractor, a mounted archery demo, and a natural horsemanship activity further enhanced the camp experience.

This year's Summer Camp was one for the record books, and we look forward to an even more successful camp in 2025!

Thank you Donors!

The following is a list of donors whose combined gifts (endowment, annual, capital, and restricted) have been received between July 1, 2023, through June 30, 2024. Gifts made in support of Linden Hall have a profound impact on bringing the mission of the school to life. We share our gratitude towards this very special group of donors and supporters of the Linden Hall mission.

Alumnae Gifts

Linden Hall is grateful for the growing annual contributions of its alumnae. The following alumnae made gifts to the endowment, annual, capital, and restricted funds from July 1, 2023, through June 30, 2024. These contributions have strengthened the Linden Hall experience of today to better serve the Linden Hall of tomorrow. We thank you for setting the example and for inspiring generosity throughout the community!

Linden Hall Heritage Society

A special type of legacy is a planned gift, which ensures long-term financial security for Linden Hall. This type of giving varies depending on the unique needs of the donor; it might be a bequest, life insurance, an individual retirement account, etc.

By remembering our school in your estate planning, you can ensure that the path to a Linden Hall education will remain accessible for young women of future generations. We are grateful to the many donors who are members of the Linden Hall Heritage Society. These planned gifts have and will continue to have a transformative effect on Linden Hall.

If you would like more information about how to include Linden Hall in your estate plans, please contact Debbie Hurd, Director of Advancement, at 717-626-8512 or dhurd@lindenhall.org.
