Boerne I.S.D. initiated the idea of a Distinguished Alumni Hall of Honor in early 2019. Superintendent, Dr. Thomas Price, formed a committee of staff and Boerne High School alumni to begin developing an annual event. The initial purpose is to acknowledge alumni who have accomplished great things since graduating, whether in Education, Medical, Armed Services, Humanitarian, Public Service, Law Enforcement, Local Commerce and Outreach, the Arts or other meritorious accomplishments. The Alumni Association is continually accepting nominations for future honorees throughout the year on the Boerne I.S.D. Alumni page of the Boerne I.S.D. website. The Distinguished Alumni Committee Board Members include Susan Elkins Adamek, Eddie Ashley, Kim Maytum Berny, Courtney Darter Bruce, Bret Bunker, Jane Collette, Janet Leidl D'Spain, Richard Herbst, Stan Leech, Tommy Mathews, Becky Vogt Minster, Gabriella Mitchell Polito, and Dr. Thomas Price.

Ann Tibbett

Benefactor Award

Ann Tibbett dedicated much of her life to Boerne ISD as she spent over 40 years as a teacher and librarian at BISD. She opened the first elementary campus library in Boerne ISD at Boerne Elementary. Tibbett then went on to design and help open libraries at Curington and Fabra Elementaries. She also wrote plays for all grade levels as well as for UIL competitions for students to perform. She received the Rotary Outstanding Teacher of the Year Award in 1997.

Tibbett was one of the founding members of the Boerne Berges Fest, where she originated the Queen's Contest. Prior to that, she helped with the Kendall County Queen's Contest for many years. She was also a founding member of the Boerne Benefit Theatre. She received the Boerne Chamber of Commerce Citizen of the Year Award for 1973-74. In 1992, she received the Beta Sigma Phi Woman Woman of the Year Award and the 2002 Humanitarian Award of the Sons of Hermann of the State of Texas from the Order of the Sons of Hermann and Paul Vogt.

Dr. Kenneth Herbst served in the U.S Army as a Captain and was a chief of the veterinary division of the 1st U.S Army Medical Laboratory. While in the service, he played halfback on the Ft. Meade football team.

Before opening his veterinary practice in Boerne, Dr. Herbst had practiced in San Antonio for several years. The Herbst Veterinary Hospital was established in August 1968.

Dr. Herbst served on the Boerne ISD Board of Trustees, as well as Chairman of the 1970 Kendall County Community Chest.

Dr. Herbst, a 1957 graduate of Boerne High School, was an All-District football player for the Greyhounds and was also All-State in Band. He earned a Doctor of Veterinary Medicine degree from Texas A&M University.

Kenneth Nickel served in the Air Force for 26 years, attaining the rank of Colonel. At the height of his military career, he served as commander of the White House Communications Agency under Presidents Reagan and Bush.

Nickel grew up on the family ranch east of Boerne. After retirement, he returned with his family to his beloved home. He put their ranch, which was homesteaded in 1870, in a conservation easement. Nickel served on the Cibolo Conservancy Board for 12 years.

He began his schooling at the Pleasant Valley One-Room School during 1st-4th grade, at which time it closed. Nickel graduated from Boerne High School in 1963.

A devout Catholic, for decades Nickel was a Deacon serving St. Joseph Honey Creek and St. Peter's in Boerne. Nickel also led other parishioners in support of the Prison Ministry Program.

Christina Bergmann

As a lifelong Boerne resident and businesswoman, Christina Bergmann serves the community as Kendall County Commissioner Precinct 1. Bergmann's public service includes serving as a Boerne City Council member in District 5, a position she held from 2012 to 2014.

As a local businesswoman and public servant, Bergmann managed the family business, Bergmann Lumber, both an iconic and historic downtown Boerne business, serving the Kendall County community from 1957-2017. Additionally, Bergmann has served on the Boerne Volunteer Fire Department for 27 years, making history as the first female firefighter for the department.

Bergmann is a 1993 graduate of Boerne High School and a 1999 graduate of Texas State University with a bachelor's degree in Business Administration.
