

Central Catholic Head Women's Golf Coach

Central Catholic High School seeks a Head Women's Golf Coach committed to educating student-athletes from diverse backgrounds in a Catholic community, committed to developing students who are relational and responsible, faithful and just, academically excellent, healthy and balanced. It is the responsibility of all faculty and staff to help develop Central Catholic students into people of character. Central Catholic believes that the interscholastic athletics program is an integral part of the total educational structure. Although participation in the program of interscholastic athletics is voluntary, the individual is of prime importance.

Central Catholic believes that the coach of every athletic activity must assume a significant role in forming Central Catholic character virtues in student-athletes (faith, responsibility, honesty, integrity, and courage). A coach should develop leaders, foster cooperation, and exhibit outstanding sportsmanship for emulation by students engaged in activities and as spectators. Coaches must insist upon sound academic pursuits, ethical behavior, and good citizenship. Coaches instill in participants a desire to be humble and display impeccable sportsmanship. Coaches must serve as role models in all of these qualities.

Central Catholic's Women's Golf program has consistently been among the top high school programs in the state. The head coach hired for this position must provide leadership and direction and continue to grow the program.
