6TH GRADE VOLLEYBALL

TYLON SIMS
SELAH PAVEY
LUPE LOSOYA

STUDENT-ATHLETE
OF THE WEEK

Lupe always brings a smile to practice with her positive attitude. She is a true team player, constantly encouraging her teammates and showing a coachable spirit.

Selah may be a silent leader on the court. Always ready to improve, she quickly picks up new skills and techniques, making her a reliable asset to the team.

Tylon has made remarkable strides since the beginning of the season. His dedication is evident as he shows up to practice eager to work hard and grow.

Representing the Blue team for the "Student-Athlete of the Week," is Jessica Huerta! Her attitude and passion for being the best player she can be is admirable. No matter if she is participating in practice, a game, or on the sidelines, she is ALL in! She has ambition and she has heart. Her teammates value her adorable sense of humor, her height, and enthusiasm for wanting to be a better player and leader. She is also very coachable and is always one of the first players to be ready for any drill. Her "keep on trying" attitude is commendable. She represents her school, team, and family with General pride! She always ends the huddle with: LOCK IN, DOMINATE THE DAY, AND GOOOOO GENERALS!

Representing the Red team is Erandi Soto. She has been a strong leader for the Lady Generals. She strives for excellence and wants the same for everyone on her team. She constantly is trying to help those around her and is always willing to help out the coaches with anything she has shown great improvement throughout the season and has been a delight to have on the team!
