Overview

The Walworth Barbour American International School (AIS) in Israel, founded in 1958, is a private, independent, nonprofit, coeducational day school serving students from preschool to grade 12. AIS offers an American college preparatory curriculum leading to a U.S. High School Diploma. School admissions are non-selective and AIS currently enrolls 535 students, including 200 students in the high school.

Faculty

The high school faculty includes 39 members, with 27 holding Master's Degrees and 4 holding Doctoral Degrees. The student-to-faculty ratio is approximately 6:1.

Academics

- AIS offers 63 unique credit-bearing courses for students in grades 9-12
- With an average class size of only 11 students, every student receives personalized attention.
- In addition to their regular classes, all students participate in Advisory and iBlock sessions, which focus on their social-emotional development and academic success.

Passports Represented

AIS Currently has 200 students in grades 9-12, with 48 students in the 12th grade. Students hold 284 passports from 39 different countries.
