

Tuloso-Midway Middle School Parent- Teacher- Student Compact 2024-2025

The purpose of the school-parent compact is to establish on-going communication between the home and school. Parents, school staff, and students share the responsibility for improved student achievement and exceeding the state standards. Therefore, Tuloso-Midway Middle School ensures to our community that students will be productive, motivated, responsible citizens who are academically prepared for successful lives. This will be accomplished by employing competent and sensitive staff members dedicated to implementing a well-balanced, relevant curriculum in a student-centered environment conducive to learning.

As a parent/guardian I take the full responsibility of supporting my child's learning. Therefore, I pledge to:

- Make sure my child is in school every day and on time, prepared for instruction.
- Make sure my child completes his/her homework assignments and attends tutorials and/or camps as recommended.
- Make sure my child is living a healthy and positive lifestyle, spending quality time as a family at least once a week.
- Share information about my child's interests, abilities, etc., with teachers.
- Volunteer my time at school for the school in various activities, including extracurricular activities.
- Make every effort to know my child's teachers, attend parent-teacher conferences as requested.
- Immediately inform teachers and office staff of any changes of contact information.
- Make every effort to attend workshops and training to help my child succeed academically.
- Engage in positive dialogue/conversations about the school atmosphere/climate.

As a Tuloso-Midway Middle School staff member I will provide high-quality curriculum and instruction in a positive supportive and effective learning environment. Therefore, I pledge to:

- Ensure that all students have an opportunity to meet and exceed the state standards.
- Provide a variety of instructional strategies and methodologies to meet the needs of all learners.
- Provide a safe and positive learning environment that promotes student learning.
- Invite parents to visit our classrooms during open house (when applicable) and encourage them to volunteer.
- Treat all children and families with respect.
- Provide positive support, including positive conversations with all stakeholders.
- Ensure lines of communication are established with parents and students.

As a Tuloso-Midway Middle School student I have the ultimate responsibility of learning. Therefore, I pledge to:

- Come to school on time every day to improve my academic performance
- Complete my homework assignments before free time at home.
- Take pride in my school and in my individual work.
- Pay attention in class and complete assignments in a timely manner.
- Respect myself, others, school property and follow anti-bullying policies.
- Engage in physical activity daily to promote good health.
- Attend tutorials, if it is recommended that I attend.

As a Tuloso-Midway Middle School administrator I pledge to:

- Provide educational leadership for school personnel, students, families and other community members.
- Encourage positive dialogue between students, parents, and administration.
- Set the tone of the school climate as positive, friendly, safe and open to the community.
- Encourage opportunities for staff, parents and other community members to collaborate with each other for the success of all students.
- Encourage building partnerships with students, staff, parents and community members to embrace campus goals.

By filling out the ParentSquare form, I acknowledge that I have received and read Parent- Teacher- Student Compact.
