CSMS LIBRARY NEWS

Recycling LEGO® Pieces

Can't decide what to do with your LEGO® bricks when you've finished playing with them? Why not donate them to CSMS Library?

Envision a Lego table filled with drawers of bricks. Students will create models of cells, replicas of buildings with historical importance, simple machines, and the list goes on and on...

We'd love to give your Lego bricks new life and a new home at CSMS Library. Donations are welcome.

Got Picture Books?

Wanted: Gently used/Like new hardback picture books

Our picture book section is small, and we'd like to help it grow. If you have a picture book that you are ready to part with, we may have a home for it here.

The ideal picture book is in good condition, is a hardback, and tells a story. It does not need to be at a middle school level. These books will be used in various ways. Some students will enjoy reading them. Some will check them out to take on babysitting jobs to read aloud. Teachers will use them as a learning tool for their students to identify story elements.

If for any reason the book is not selected to be added to the collection, it will be donated.

Festive Fall

We're looking for Pumpkin Spice and Everything Nice in the CSMS Library. If you have fall decorations that you no longer want, they may give our library the perfect fall feel. Think fall leaves, scarecrows, sunflowers, pumpkins, footballs, etc. It will feel so fall-tastic, we'll need a sweater.

Thank you for your donations.

Your CSMS Library appreciates you!
