

A satellite map of Newport Coast, California, showing a residential neighborhood with red-roofed houses and winding streets. A large, irregularly shaped area of dry, brownish grass is outlined with a white border and labeled 'Field - Utility'. The school building is visible in the lower-left quadrant, and a red location pin marks its position. Various streets are labeled, including Newport Coast Dr, Marisol, Amador, Renata, Tesoro, and Portica. A swimming pool is visible in the lower-right quadrant. The Google logo is at the bottom center.
