

The ACT Manual

1 Fee Waiver Eligibility

If you're eligible for a fee waiver, you can take the ACT for free and get other benefits. Learn more, <https://www.act.org/content/act/en/products-and-services/the-act/registration/fees/fee-waivers.html>

ACT fee waivers are available to 11th and 12th grade students in the U.S. or U.S. territories who are low-income OR reside in a foster home, is a ward of the state, or are homeless.

If you qualify, benefits include up to four free ACT tests, free additional score reports to send to colleges, free test information release, and waived application fees at participating colleges.

2 Have Access to a Photo to Upload & a Copy of Your Transcript

Make sure to have a photo of yourself and a copy of your high school transcript ready to upload before registering for the ACT. Learn more about requesting a copy of your high school transcript, <https://www.effinghamschools.com/family-students/recordstranscripts>

3 Find a Test Center
