

HRS CORE VALUES IN ACTION: ELECTION DISCUSSIONS

Core Values

Respect

Listen to Others: Pay attention when someone shares their ideas.

Disagree Kindly: If you don't agree, say it nicely without being mean.

Accept the Outcome: Even if things don't go your way, it's okay to move forward.

Purpose

Know Why It Matters: Understand that elections help shape our nation and communities.

Be Helpful: Share ideas to help, not just to win.

Ask Questions: Don't be afraid to ask if you don't understand something.

Responsibility

Learn First: Make sure you know about the topic before you share your thoughts.

Join In Thoughtfully: Share ideas with a clear reason, not just to speak.

Follow the Rules: Stick to the guidelines during activities or talks.

Perseverance

Keep Going: Stay involved, even when it's hard.

Keep Learning: Learn more, even after the event is over.

Think About the Future: Remember, this is just the beginning, so stay interested in helping next time too.

Sentence Starters

"I see your point, and I want to add..."

"I hear you. Can you tell me more about..."

"I understand your idea. Here's how I see it..."

"Thanks for sharing! I think about it differently because..."

