

CAREER PATHWAYS

Grow here. Learn here. Work here.

Health Careers - Phlebotomy

The Phlebotomy Certificate program equips students with a blend of medical terminology knowledge and hands-on skills in blood collection and laboratory procedures, preparing them for a successful healthcare career. Emphasizing effective communication, safety, and patient-centered care, our program fosters graduates who excel in technical proficiency and compassionate healthcare. With a focus on critical thinking and professionalism, we provide a supportive learning environment, ensuring graduates are poised for success in the dynamic healthcare field, making a meaningful impact on individuals and communities.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

JOB TYPES:

- Phlebotomist
- Lab Assistant
- Medical Assistant (non-certified)

SALARY RANGE:

Phlebotomist: $33,580 to $56,520

SOURCE: <https://www.onetonline.org>

LOCAL INDUSTRY:

- Mercy Medical Center
- VA Healthcare
- Aviva Health
- Local medical facilities
- Local laboratory facilities

AVAILABLE PATHWAYS: Phlebotomy Certificate

- 20 credits required
- Full pathway offered during high school

Phlebotomy

| HIGH SCHOOL PATH PHLEBOTOMY CERTIFICATE | RHS | |
|--|----------|--|
| Standard 9th grade coursework | GRADE 9 | |
| Intro to Health Occupations (MED100) Advanced Medical (ES101) | GRADE 10 | |
| Medical Terminology I/II (MED111/112) Data Science | GRADE 11 | |
| Phlebotomy (PHLB101) | GRADE 12 | |
| Graduate from Roseburg High School | | |

Phlebotomy Certificate

Upon completion of the program, students will possess a well-rounded skill set, combining proficiency in medical terminology with practical expertise in blood collection and laboratory procedures. This program aims to prepare individuals for certifying exams and a successful career in the healthcare field, emphasizing the importance of communication, safety, and patient-centered care.