

Concussion Return-To-Learn Recommendations

(To be completed by Licensed Physician (MD/DO) or an LAT, PA, or NP under treating physician's supervision)

Name of Athlete:	DOB:	Date:
Following a concussion, most individuals typically need some degresuch as reading, watching TV or movies, playing video games, worl worsen symptoms during the acute period after concussion. Naving recently concussed student-athlete. A Return-To-Learn policy factlearning environment. Healthcare providers should consider wheth symptom burden. It is important to the review academic/school sthat may be beneficial.	king/playing on the computer and/ igating academic requirements and ilitates a gradual progression of co ner academic and school modificati	or texting require cognitive effort and ca d a school setting present a challenge to ognitive demand for student-athletes in ons may help expedite recovery and lowe
Educational accommodations that may be helpful are listed below	1 .
Return to school with the following supports:
Length of Day
Shortened day. Recommended hours per day un	til re-evaluated or (date)
≤ 4 hours per day in class (consider alternating days of Shortened classes (i.e. rest breaks during classes). Max
Use class a	as a study hall in a quiet environme	nt.
Check for the return of symptoms when doing activities	es that require a lot of attention or	concentration.
Extra Time
Allow extra time to complete coursework/assignment
Take rest breaks during the day as needed (particularly	y if symptoms recur).
Homework
Lessen homework by % per class, or min	utes/class; or to a maximum of	minutes nightly, no more thanminutes continuous.
Testing No significant classroom or standardized testing at this	s time as this does not reflect the	nationt's true abilities
<ul><li>No significant classroom or standardized testing at this</li><li>Limited classroom testing allowed. No more than</li></ul>
Student is able to take quizzes or tests but no		ille.
Student is able to take quizzes or tests but no Student able to take tests but should be allow Student able to take tests but should be unlow Limit test and quiz taking to no more than one per day
May resume regular test taking.	· •
Vision
Lessen screen time (SMART board, computer, videos,	etc.) to a maximum minutes	per class AND no more than continuous minutes (with 5-10 minute bre
Print class notes and online assignments (14 font or la	·	_
Allow student to wear sunglasses or hat with bill worn	•	• •
Environment
Provide alternative setting during band or music class	(outside of that room).
Provide alternative setting during PE and/or recess to	avoid noise exposure and risk of in	jury (out of gym).
Allow early class release for class transitions to reduce	e exposure to hallway noise/activity	/.
Provide alternative location to eat lunch outside of car
Allow the use of earplugs when in noisy environment.
Patient should not attend athletic practice
Patient is allowed to be present but not participate in	practice, limited to hours
Additional Recommendations:		