

All community feedback was thoroughly reviewed and used as input for our analysis; much of it was integrated into the revised scenario and recommendations

- Stakeholder feedback has been an important input to our analysis
- Multiple modes for engagement led to robust participation
- Diversity of viewpoints is a strength – no one voice speaks for all
- Diversity of viewpoints means no single solution will get 100% agreement
- We are grateful for the feedback and input – our recommendations include specific ideas suggested by community members (thank you whoever you are!)
