

- I can't remember my login credentials to get into my account
  - Use recovery system through College Board
  - Call Helpline at 888-225-5427
- I have multiple accounts and now I can't get into my account
  - You cannot have more than one account
  - Contact College Board hotline directly so they can sync account information
- What if am I taking an AP exam, but not in the class
  - Please see Mr. Graham or Mrs. Yi so they can create a test only section for on College Board
  - You must be in the system so an exam can be ordered for you
- What is the point of taking an AP class and exam?
  - Colleges look for students taking rigorous courses at their high school
  - Passing the AP exam, gives students college credit and may even eliminate the introductory class they would have to take in college