

Quantum Learning—Upcoming PD Opportunities

March 9th - 3:15-4:15 TW/LL Library: Brain Boost—Clear & Concise Classroom Communication

Learn to give directions in a way that is most simple for the brain to understand and receive coaching so you have applicable skills to use the next day in your own classroom.

March 9th - 3:15-4:15 TT Room 293: Brain Boost—State Management

Learn how to control your own state and manage the state of students through direct and indirect methods. Skills include alpha state, music with intention, brain breaks, etc.

March 16th - 3:15-4:15 TR B101: Brain Boost—8 Keys in Content Areas

Teachers will receive an extension of QL PD through review of the 8 keys, ways to use and teach them in the content areas, and collaborative time for other approaches to the 8 keys of success.

March 16th - 3:15-4:15 TT Room 293: Brain Boost—Pattern Puzzles

Using pattern puzzles and other manipulatives is an effective way to reduce stress for students (calm their amygdalas!) and is an excellent method for review and assessment. Come play with pattern puzzles from many subject areas including Math, Science, Social Studies, English & Art! Learn how to incorporate pattern puzzles into your specific curriculum.

March 21st - 3:15-4:15 TR B101: Brain Boost—Building Classroom Rapport

Teachers will receive an extension of the QL PD through strategies to help build Home Court Advantage as well as strategies to promote unity and understanding.

March 23rd - 3:15-4:15 TW/LL Library—Powerful Principles of Communication

We continue to improve our communication and build on skills so that students understand what we mean and carry out tasks when we direct them. Be ready to get coaching on your current communication habits and build strategies that get students moving and returning to where they need to be.

March 23rd - 3:15-4:15 TT Room 293: Brain Boost—Big Me/Big You & Powerful Principles of Communication

Establish a culture of mutual respect to facilitate amazing learnings! Building on a culture of Big Me/Big You, we will continue to improve our communication skills through clear direction sets, inclusive language, directing the focus and eliciting the (positive) image. Be ready to practice!
