Are you worried about an eviction for unpaid rent?

Submit or update your application as soon as possible to California's "Housing is Key" rent relief program. This is the most important step you can take! If you have submitted an application, you cannot be evicted for rent you owe or not being able to pay current rent (until April 1 2022). Go to: https://housing.ca.gov/.

How can I avoid an eviction and stay in my home?

Even if you submit your application, you may get a "3 day notice to pay rent or quit" from your landlord. You do not need to panic: you can still be protected from the eviction! You do not need to move out! Do not sign any documents!

After you get a "3 day notice", you have 15 days to submit an application to the "Housing is Key" rent relief program if you haven't already, AND give a confirmation letter to your landlord, explaining that you have applied. Keep a copy of the confirmation letter.

20 days after giving the "3 day notice", if the tenant has not applied to the rent relief program, the landlord can turn in paperwork to the court to initiate the eviction process. The eviction process in court can take 4-6 weeks.

If the tenant has applied to the rent relief program and notified the landlord, the court should not process the eviction. If you update your application for each month of rent you need assistance for, you can stay protected from eviction until March 31, 2022.

Do you have questions? Are you worried about another type of eviction?

- 1. Call Faith in Action's community response line to learn about your rights: 203-666-4472.
- 2. Contact free legal assistance: call San Mateo County Legal Aid at (650) 517-8911 or Community Legal Services of East Palo Alto at (650) 326-6440.

¿Preocupado por recibir un aviso de desalojo por la renta atrasada?

AYUDA CON LA RENTA DE COVID-19 DE CALIFORNIA Envíe o actualice su solicitud lo antes posible al programa de alivio de alquiler "Housing is Key" de California.

¡Este es el paso más importante! Si ha entregado una solicitud, no puede ser desalojado por el alquiler que adeuda o por no poder pagar el alquiler (hasta el 1 de abril de 2022). Vaya a: https://housing.ca.gov/

¿Cómo puedo evitar un desalojo y quedarme en mi hogar?

Incluso si presenta su solicitud, es posible que reciba un "aviso de 3 días para pagar el alquiler o renunciar" de su arrendador. No debe entrar en pánico: ¡aún puede estar protegido del desalojo! ¡No necesita mudarse! ¡No firme ningún documento!

Después de recibir un "aviso de 3 días", tiene 15 días para enviar una solicitud al programa de alivio de alquiler "Housing is Key" si aún no lo ha hecho. Si ya lo hizo, tiene 15 dias para asegurar que todos los meses adeudados estan dentro de la aplicacion. Entregue una carta de confirmación al propietario con fecha, explicando que ha presentado la solicitud. Tome una foto o una copia de la carta de confirmación.

20 días después de dar el "aviso de 3 días", si el inquilino no ha solicitado el programa de alivio del alquiler, el propietario puede entregar la documentación a la corte para iniciar el proceso de desalojo. El proceso de desalojo en la corte puede durar de 4 a 6 semanas.

Si el inquilino ha aplicado al programa de alquiler alivio y notificado al arrendador, la corte no debe procesar el desalojo. Si actualiza su solicitud para cada mes de alquiler para el que necesita ayuda, puede permanecer protegido contra el desalojo hasta el 31 de marzo de 2022.

¿Tiene preguntas o está preocupado por otro tipo de desalojo?

- 1. Llame a la línea de respuesta comunitaria de Faith in Action: 203-666-4472.
- 2. Comuníquese con asistencia legal gratuita: llame a Asistencia Legal del Condado de San Mateo al (650) 517-8911 o a los Servicios Legales Comunitarios de East Palo Alto al (650) 326-6440. iComparta esta información con sus vecinos y las personas que conoce!
