Amy Leos

Growing up in East Houston, Amy Leos graduated from North Shore High School in 1995. She earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in English from Texas Tech University in 1999. After a semester of student teaching at Lubbock High School, Mrs. Leos accepted a teaching position at Galena Park High School and continued teaching high school English for ten years in both Galena Park ISD and Crosby ISD. As a member of the first faculty to teach in the Ninth Grade Initiative, Ms. Leos witnessed the profound impact of building positive professional relationships between students, teachers and parents. With a Masters degree in School Counseling from Sam Houston State University, Ms. Leos took on the role of NGI counselor in 2009. In 2019, Ms. Leos began her 10th year as a school counselor and her 20th year in education overall. Amy Leos lives in Crosby with her husband CP and their son Jake and niece Kristin, both sophomores at CHS; nephew Adam, 8th grader at CMS; and niece Ava, 1st grader at CES. She has two dogs, Lola and Luna. Life outside of school includes ringing in her church handbell choir, supporting the four kiddos through their many endeavors, and rewatching The Office on Netflix for the 5th time. If she is not at school, Ms. Leos is probably on a cruise ship headed for Mexico.
