Crusader Chronicles

Good Shepherd Catholic School

As we mark the most special days of our liturgical year, we urge you to spend some time with Christ. These days are perfect for taking a breath and reconnecting with Him and your loved ones. Promise yourself to soak in the Easter spirit, the freshness of spring, and the chance for new beginnings throughout Easter Week.

We're a people of hope, and Jesus rising from the dead and conquering sin is a reminder of the hope we carry every day.

We hope your Triduum and Easter Week bring you closer to God and your family. May they refresh you and bring you many blessings.

Have mercy on me, O God,
according to your merciful love;
according to your great compassion,
blot out my transgressions.
Psalm 51

Diocesean Pilgrimage

Way to Go to our GSCS pilgrims that attended the Diocesean Cross Pilgrimage this past weekend! They did a great job sharing their faith with others despite the wind and rain!

G.S.C.S. Cross Pilgrimage Participants
