Principal's Message-

Companions on the Journey–John 17:24 April-May Spiritual Work of Mercy – Pray for the Living and the Dead

As we continue in this Easter season, the resurrection stories help us to witness the Spiritual Works of Mercy in action. In his final days on earth, Jesus' appearances to his Apostles and disciples provided teaching moments in which he instructed the ignorant. In the encounter with St. Thomas, he counseled the doubtful Apostle from unbelief to belief. The three-fold exchange between Jesus and St. Peter in which Jesus asked St. Peter if he loved him demonstrated how Jesus forgave offenses willingly.

These examples as well as readings about the early Church found in the Acts of the Apostles have been proclaimed throughout the Easter season. They serve to show us that the Spiritual Works of Mercy are daily calls to live the Gospel message. They can be found in our families, our places of work, and our communities.

Throughout the upcoming week, as you reflect on each day in prayer before bedtime, think how you lived one or more Spiritual Work of Mercy that day. Then, express your gratitude to God for the blessing it provided you and another person in your life.
