

The SpartyBots is a robotics club that helps students develop 21st century skills in a fun and collaborative environment. In SpartyBots, students work in teams to solve programming challenges using iPads along with Ozobots and Dash Robots. The robotics club is a great place for students to explore their interest in coding.

