

SPRINKLE Kindness

At SEEC, we believe that making the world a better place begins with our Little Spartans. Kindness is how people of all ages respect, communicate with, and treat others. Each Thursday, a student is selected from his or her classroom for showing a random act of kindness to their classmates, teachers, or school. Students are recognized, and their kind kid's acts are displayed on a heart for the kindness tree.

