SEAHAWK SPOTLIGHT

Thanks for all you do.

"My wife and I love being a part of the Seahawk family"

Pictured above is his family; he is seen giving instructions to his son when he played for him at Nelson County at the top right.

Strunk w/ Coach Duggar as a player then as asst. coach at FCS.

Congratulations, David "Dirk" Strunk

With 31 years in education, David Strunk has taught, US History Honors, US History, World History, Government, Economics, Sociology, Psychology, Alabama History, World Geography, World Geography Honors, Physical Education, Weightlifting, Civics, and History in Film. Currently, Strunk runs Alternative School and serves as the Head Softball Coach at Franklin County.

In his 30-plus years in education, Strunk has coached football for 30 years: 22 years as a Head Football Coach and Athletic Director. I have received 2 Coach of the Year Awards, 1 Crystal Apple Award for teaching, and Secondary Teacher of the Year.

He shares, "I have had the privilege of coaching a number of young men and women who were able to continue their athletic careers at the collegiate level, I have coached 3 that have gone on to play professionally. I have also coached softball, soccer, track, weightlifting, and golf."

Strunk expresses, "I got into the Teaching/Coaching profession to change lives. To help young people realize their full potential and realize that there is more out there than what they can see."
