Informational Item: Principal's Update

- A. Mrs. Alhadeff reported that we have had a great opening to our school year and everyone is on board with "It's grow time!" Mrs. Alhadeff read to K-2 classrooms this week. We are fully staffed. Student projections are up from 394 to 408 that is up 12 from projections. Other schools in the area are not up and Fulton County Schools enrollment is down overall. Count day is tomorrow. The council discussed count day projections and staffing.

Discussion Item: Review Council Self-Assessment

- A. The SGC reviewed the self-assessment results. The council is looking forward to design thinking guiding decision making.

Discussion Item: Strategic Planning

- A. The county decided to revise the mission and vision. Mrs. Alhadeff will be meeting with Mrs. Parham to discuss Vickery Mill ES goals and then will bring them to the staff. The focus will be iready, community engagement, and possibly other assessment will meet and get all stakeholder perspectives.

Discussion Item: Design Thinking Follow up

- A. The council touched base on the bus buddy and morning mystery ideas for increased attendance engagement. The council discussed picking one idea to focus on each semester. The bus tends to have the most behaviors at the beginning of the year so the council picked the bus buddy idea to be the focus for fall semester. The council will start by working with the 5th grade team to identify the students to be bus role models.

Discussion Item: Draft Next Meeting Agenda

- A. The next meeting will take place on August 15 at 2:45 at Vickery Mill Elementary. The council will touch base about design thinking. Mrs. Alhadeff will update the council on the .5 EIP position.
