

Biography

Introduce the person being studied (who they are, what they are known for):

RL Stain is known for his book series "Goosebumps"

Describe the person's childhood and family background:

He grew up in Ohio

He lives with his mom and dad

He went to Howard University

Hired by Scholastic

Share any big events or experiences that made a big impact on them:

Big events are:

Born in Ohio

Hired by Scholastic

Still alive

Share any challenges they had to overcome to be successful:

He didn't get accepted into the college he wanted to

Summarize the person's life and why they are important to learn about:

He had a good influence on kids looking for a scare.

He inspired many authors

Explain why we can still learn from them today:

When he created his books he purposefully made the characters to look fake

Share any thoughts or opinions you have about the person and their impact:

He laid the ground work for horror genre for kids