

Biography

Introduce the person being studied (who they are, what they are known for):

Neil gaiman born november 10,1960
he is still alive and is known for making various books and stories

Describe the person's childhood and family background:

had a normal childhood and had a family that owned a shop in new york

Share any big events or experiences that made a big impact on them:

his mom and dad had big impacts on him

Share any challenges they had to overcome to be successful:

the challenge of being a writer

Summarize the person's life and why they are important to learn about:

neil gaimans life was like any other except he wanted to be an author he is very creative and has a great mind

Explain why we can still learn from them today:

he is a very insprational person

Share any thoughts or opinions you have about the person and their impact:

i really like this persons work as an author and own 2 of his books