The McGuffey Readers were a series of seven books with stories and poems that not only taught kids reading and grammar, but also helped them to develop good qualities. It was one of the most widely used and influential textbooks of its time in transferring not only knowledge but also certain virtues required to fulfill the responsibilities of citizenship in a free society. 10. MATTERS OF PUBLIC COMMENT

President Green

The Board will now hear public comment on the following topics that have been indicated on the sign-in sheet. A reminder that this Board meeting is a business meeting held in public not a public meeting. The Board hears public comment to learn about the preferences and concerns of our community. Therefore, tonight we will listen. We are prohibited by state law to take any action on the items because law requires formal public notice prior to any action on an agenda item. During our next meeting, if appropriate, we will consider your comments in our discussion, and we will ask that the Superintendent attempt to find an answer for any of your questions by that time.

The Board welcomes the comments of our community members, but to ensure that everyone will have an opportunity to participate, we have a few ground rules we ask you to follow:

- Anyone intending to address the Board should sign the speaker sign-in sheet. I will call speakers in the order in which they signed in.
- Speakers’ comments are limited to three minutes.
- If more than one person wishes to speak on the same topic, we ask that the speaker limit their comments to only new information. We ask that you do not repeat views already expressed by other speakers, although we cannot prevent you from doing so.
- We ask you to refrain from making complaints or negative comments against individual students or District employees; however, we cannot prevent you from doing so. Such complaints and comments should be addressed first at the classroom or school level, and then if still unresolved, to the Superintendent.
- Disturbing good order by inappropriate language or gestures is grounds for removal from the meeting.

We thank you in advance for your participation tonight.

11. CONSENT AGENDA (Policy References: 2.C)

President Green

Board of Directors vote on the motion, unless members of the board, staff or public, request specific items to be discussed separately and/or removed from this section.

27J SCHOOLS
BOARD OF EDUCATION RESOLUTION NUMBER FOUR 2024-2025
OPPOSITION TO 2024 PROPOSED COLORADO AMENDMENT 80

A Constitutional Amendment likely to reduce resources for students in public schools

October 23, 2024

Whereas, Colorado K-12 students and families have education options to meet their unique needs. Through open enrollment, free education choices open to all families include neighborhood schools, magnet schools, out-of-district schools, online schools, charter schools and specialized education programs provided by districts throughout the state.

Whereas, Colorado's 2024 proposed Amendment 80 would change the State Constitution, giving each K-12 student the right to receive public funds to pay for non-public education. Non-public education institutions are not obligated to meet the same requirements as public education, which include professional licensure requirements, accountability measures, and serving all students.

Whereas, Amendment 80 has the potential to divert public funds away from public education. It would likely result in using public taxpayer dollars to fund private and homeschooling options.

Whereas, A system created as a result of Amendment 80's passage would primarily benefit wealthier families who already send their children to private schools, effectively creating a subsidy for the rich. In contrast, underprivileged students, especially those in rural or underserved areas, would likely see little benefit from such a program because private school options are less accessible in those areas.

Whereas, Colorado voters have consistently rejected voucher initiatives in the past. During the 1990s, three separate ballot measures proposed education vouchers, which would have allowed public funds to be used for private schools. All three were decisively defeated by voters.

Whereas, Efforts to introduce voucher programs through the state legislature have also failed. Since 2016, the Colorado legislature has rejected voucher-related proposals 18 times. Voters and legislators have remained protective of public school funding, consistently opposing measures perceived to undermine it.

Therefore, Be It Resolved, that 27J Schools opposes Colorado Amendment 80 as it risks diverting essential public funds from public schools to private and homeschooling options, undermining the financial stability of public education systems throughout the state.

Therefore, Be It Resolved that we affirm our commitment to strengthening Colorado's public schools and oppose any effort such as Amendment 80, that would reduce resources for students in public schools.

Therefore, Be It Resolved that 27J Schools opposes Amendment 80 because it could exacerbate inequities in Colorado's education system by primarily benefiting wealthier families who already have access to private schooling while providing little benefit to low-income students.

Be It Resolved that 27J Schools opposes any constitutional amendment including Amendment 80, that undermines the public good by weakening protections for public education and reallocating resources to private entities.

RESOLVED AND PASSED THIS 23RD DAY OF OCTOBER 2024.
