

Brown, Johnson Elected to Warren County Board of Education

Warren County Schools welcomes Matthew Brown and Jarvis Johnson as the newest elected members of the Warren County Board of Education. Brown will represent District 4, while Johnson represents District 2.

Matthew Brown, a WCHS Class of 1998 graduate, is a retired U.S. Army Special Forces Operations Sergeant and the owner of River Farm Nursery. He resides in Irving College with his wife, Camille, and their children.

"I look forward to working with my fellow board members, Dr. Swallows, and all those who have a hand in guiding the direction of our school system, in continuing to strive for excellence. Never will you hear me say that we are good enough or that we have done enough, we should always be looking for ways to get better. I would also like to thank all of the teachers and staff throughout the county for the time, hard work, and love they pour into our students," Brown shared.

Jarvis Johnson, a WCHS Class of 1995 graduate, is the Captain of the SRO Division at the Warren County Sheriff's Department with 25 years of law enforcement experience, most of which has been as a school resource officer. He lives in McMinnville with his wife, Stephanie, and their daughter.

"It is with profound gratitude that I want to thank the citizens of our beloved Warren County for their trust in me to serve as one of the members of this prestigious board. As we work together cohesively, I believe we can make public education an enjoyable and meaningful experience for students and their families. I vow, with my extensive background in law enforcement and school safety, to make our schools a safe environment for all students to learn. I will work seamlessly with our community partners to support our families, teachers, administrators, and students. With your support, my fellow board members and I will work to continue building a platform to support higher levels of learning for all," Johnson stated.

Brown and Johnson will each serve four-year terms, effective September 2024. They will join the four other school board members who collectively represent the six districts across Warren County: James Bennett (District 1), Larry Judkins (District 3), Chris Cope (District 5), and Tommy Culwell (District 6). The next meeting of the Warren County Board of Education will take place on October 24th at 5:00 p.m. inside the central office boardroom.

About Warren County Schools:

Warren County Schools is dedicated to providing a supportive and challenging educational environment that fosters academic excellence and prepares students for future success.

Through a commitment to innovation, community engagement, and the professional growth of our educators, Warren County Schools strives to be a leader in education both locally and statewide.

For more information, please contact:

Sarah Cantrell

Communications Coordinator

cantrells2@warrenschoools.com