INTRODUCING...

"LIGHTS, CAMERA, ACTION: SPOTLIGHT ON LEARNING"

This month we explored some of the character traits Lotte displayed and how they relate to RAMS Way!

Greetings, EHUE Families,

Our students continue to shine bright in their educational journey as we embark on the second month of the school year! We have so many exciting academic and extracurricular activities unfolding at Eden Hall, and we are eager to share these highlights in this newsletter.

As we immerse ourselves in our theme, "Lights, Camera, Action! Spotlight on Learning," inspired by the book Lotte's Magical Paper Puppets by Brooke Hartman, we have dedicated October to emphasizing the R of RAMS Way—Respect. Our students had the opportunity to hear from motivational speaker Coach Dave Gray, who captivated our school with engaging assemblies. He inspired our students to embrace the importance of respecting themselves and others while courageously pursuing their dreams—much like Lotte in her journey to pursue her passion!

We were elated to welcome author Colleen AF Venable and illustrator Stephanie Yu, the creative minds behind the graphic novel Katie the Catsitter 4: The Purrfect Plan, during our Book Fair Week. They sparked inspiration in our students through grade-level assemblies, sharing their insights into the writing and illustrating process. Their powerful message about motivation and persistence resonated deeply, igniting a passion for storytelling among our students. Some students had the opportunity to eat lunch with the author and illustrator and a book signing was held in our library in the afternoon! Additionally, students enthusiastically browsed for new books at our Fall Book Fair, hosted by Riverstone Books.

In addition to welcoming visitors, our EHUE team has been hard at work! Our Sustainability Committee has been diligently working, holding their initial meetings to brainstorm ways to make our school more sustainable. The team is working on reinforcing our sustainable efforts currently happening and establishing a new recycling project.

Our dedicated educators have been collaborating in Professional Learning Communities (PLCs) to focus on our two key building goals: ensuring every student achieves their expected growth academically and cultivating a culture where students genuinely love to learn.

As we enter the fall season, we have hosted a number of exciting activities for our students. The creative pumpkins designed by our teachers infused a festive spirit into the cafeteria, and students have been voting for their favorites! Our students continue to bring in their own decorated pumpkins to put on display in our school wide pumpkin patch.
