Fresno High Region Hosts Family Engagement Event

What: Family engagement event for the Fresno High region with fun reading activities

When: Tuesday, Oct. 22, 2024
5-7:30 p.m.

Where: Fresno High School
1839 N. Echo Ave. (93704)

Families in the Fresno High region are invited to a fun family engagement event featuring interactive reading activities and free books, district and community resources and food (first come, first served). Students in the Fresno High region with 100% attendance will also be recognized. Sponsors are Parent University and Fresno Unified board member Andy Levine.

The Fresno High event is the second in a series of family engagement events that will be held this school year in the high school regions in support of the district's board-adopted Family Goal to "Increase inclusive opportunities for families to engage in their students' education."

“We hope that families will join us at beautiful Fresno High to learn more about various resources our district and community offer, choose free books, enjoy a meal and celebrate great attendance,” said Interim Superintendent Misty Her.
