Surveys - General

Surveys requesting personal information from students, as well as any other instrument used to collect personal information from students, must advance or relate to the Charter School's educational objectives as identified in Board policy. This applies to all surveys, regardless of whether the student answering the questions can be identified and regardless of who created the survey.

Any noncurricular-related survey, well-being questionnaire, or health screening must be approved by the Administrator or designee before it is administered by an employee to any student. For the purposes of this policy, noncurricular survey shall mean surveys other than those conducted as part of a student's course of study.

Personally identifiable information from student education records may be disclosed to an educational agency or institution in order to:

1. Develop, validate, or administer predictive tests;
2. Administer student aid programs; or
3. Improve instruction.

In such cases, the School shall enter into a written agreement with the receiving organization. The study must not allow identification of individual parents or students by anyone other than representatives of the organization with legitimate interests in the information and the information must be destroyed when it is no longer needed for study purposes.

Surveys Created by a Third Party

Before the School administers or distributes a survey created by a third party to a student, the student's parent(s)/guardian(s) may inspect the survey upon request and within a reasonable time of their request.

This section applies to every survey:

1. That is created by a person or entity other than a School official, staff member, or student;
2. Regardless of whether the student answering the questions can be identified; and
3. Regardless of the subject matter of the questions.

School officials and staff members shall not request, nor disclose, the identity of any student who completes ANY survey containing one or more of the following items:

1. Political affiliations or beliefs of the student or the student's parent/guardian;
2. Mental or psychological problems of the student or the student's family;
3. Behavior or attitudes about sex;
4. Illegal, anti-social, self-incriminating, or demeaning behavior;
5. Critical appraisals of other individuals with whom students have close family relationships;
6. Legally recognized privileged or analogous relationships, such as those with lawyers, physicians, and ministers;
7. Religious practices, affiliations, or beliefs of the student or the student's parent/guardian; or
8. Income, other than that required by law to determine eligibility for participation in a program or for receiving financial assistance under such program.

In the case of such surveys, the student's parent(s)/guardian(s) may:

1. Inspect the survey within a reasonable time of the request, and/or
2. Refuse to allow their child to participate in any survey requesting personal information.
The school shall not penalize any student whose parent(s)/guardian(s) exercises this opt-out option.

In the case of surveys, tests, or measuring devices on the following topics, the survey shall be provided to the parent(s)/guardian(s) and written parental permission shall be obtained before the survey is administered to the student.

1. A student's sexuality;
2. Sex;
3. Religion;
4. Personal political beliefs;
5. Mental or psychological problems;
6. Personal family information; and
7. Individual or family financial information.

For the purposes of this policy, personal family information means any of the information in this list or any personally identifiable information about a student or any of their immediate relatives.

The employee overseeing any test, measurement device, survey, questionnaire, or screening for which such permission is required shall maintain documentation that all required parental and/or administrative permission has been given.

Instructional Material

A student's parent(s)/guardian(s) may, within a reasonable time of the request, inspect any instructional material used as part of their child's educational curriculum.

The term "instructional material," for purposes of this policy, means instructional content that is provided to a student, regardless of its format, printed or representational materials, audio-visual materials, and materials in electronic or digital formats (such as materials accessible through the Internet). The term does not include academic tests or academic assessments.

1. A student's or parent's first and last name;
2. A home or other physical address, including street name and the name of the city or town;
3. Telephone number; or
4. A Social Security identification number.

The School shall not collect, disclose, or use student personal information for the purpose of marketing or selling that information or otherwise providing that information to others for that purpose.

The School, however, is not prohibited from collecting, disclosing, or using personal information collected from students for the exclusive purpose of developing, evaluating, or providing educational products or services for, or to, students or educational institutions such as the following:

Nutrition Services

Rationale

Students must go to school with minds and bodies ready to take advantage of the learning environment schools work so hard to develop. Good nutrition is a prime factor in the student's ability to learn. In addition to families, the school environment plays a vital role in shaping students' nutritional health throughout the growing years in the following ways:

1. Students eat one or two of their meals each school day in the school cafeteria;
2. Classroom teachers provide factual instruction on human health and biology;
3. Peer relationships and adult role models influence eating patterns and provide subtle but strong messages in body image development;
4. Physical education and school sports programs strengthen students' bodies and are often sources of nutrition information; and
5. School health services, guidance counselors, and classroom teachers provide essential support for students' physical and psychological growth.

Nutrition services complement and enhance school health services. Nutrition services include screening, assessment, counseling/education, referral, and follow-up services. Students who may benefit most from school-based nutrition services include:

1. Children with special healthcare needs;
2. Adolescents who are obese, underweight, follow a specialized diet, or have other issues, such as eating disorders;
3. Students living in impoverished conditions with limited access to nutritionally adequate food; and
4. Students who abuse substances such as food, drugs, alcohol, and tobacco.

The food service director, and teachers should work collaboratively with parents to successfully integrate nutrition into the District's comprehensive health program.

Nutrition services are linked to physical education, school meals, and health promotion programs in the school and community. At a minimum, the nutrition services program will:

1. Provide standard nutrition screening;
2. Establish a well-defined plan for follow up with students and referral to community-based services; and
3. Provide recommendations for physical activities.

Nutrition-Related Health Problems

Headaches, stomach upsets, and general malaise, may be a direct result of poor nutrition. Other nutritional concerns; including restrictive dieting, distorted body images, eating disorders, and obesity; may have an indirect effect on learning, and may be significant predictors of a student's success in school.

Nutrition Education

Quality nutrition education should be presented creatively, be grade appropriate, and build knowledge and skills throughout the student's school experience. It addresses factual information and explores the health, social, cultural, and personal issues influencing food choices. Nutrition and nutrition education are recognized as important contributors to overall health.

Comprehensive nutrition education programs extend beyond the classroom into the larger School environment. The School cafeteria serves as a laboratory where students apply critical thinking skills taught in the classroom. Physical education programs, after-school sports, and School health services are appropriate avenues for nutrition education efforts. Students need to explore how:

1. Knowledge has purpose and meaning in their lives; and
2. Curriculum points to the connections within and across disciplines.

Examples of how nutrition can be integrated into classes include discussing ethnic food practices in the context of history and geography; preparation of healthy food in home economics, adult living, or life skills courses; the study of essential nutrients in science and biology classes; applying mathematical and technological skills to conduct dietary analysis; and addressing the wide range of social, cultural, and psychological aspects of food in language and social studies classrooms.

The Charter School has a comprehensive curriculum approach to nutrition in kindergarten through grade 12. All instructional staff are encouraged to integrate nutritional themes into daily lessons when appropriate. The health benefits of good nutrition should be emphasized. These nutritional themes include but are not limited to:

1. Knowledge of My Plate;
2. Healthy choices to decrease illness;
3. Sources and variety of foods;
4. Guide to a healthy diet;
5. Diet and disease;
6. Understanding calories and food as energy;
7. Healthy snacks;
8. Healthy breakfast;
9. Healthy diet;
10. Food labels;
11. Major nutrients;
12. Multicultural influences;
13. Serving sizes by age, sex, and activity level;

14. Proper sanitation;
15. Importance of fluid intake and selection; and
16. Identifying and limiting low nutrition food.

The School nutrition policy reinforces nutrition education to help students practice these themes in a supportive school environment.

All nutrition education will be scientifically based, consistent with the most recent Dietary Guidelines for Americans.

Nutrition education will be offered in the School cafeteria as well as in the classroom, with coordination between School food service staff and teachers. Teachers can display posters, videos, websites, etc. on nutrition topics and send materials home to involve parents.

Participation in USDA nutrition programs is encouraged as the School conducts nutrition education activities and promotions that involve students, parents, and the community. The School Nutrition Committee described in Policy 8210 will be responsible for these activities.

School Community

For a truly comprehensive approach to the School-based nutrition programs and services, it is crucial that all members of the School community help to create an environment that supports healthy eating practices. Administrators, teachers, School food service and other personnel; parents; and students need to be involved in this effort. Decisions made in all School programming need to reflect and encourage positive nutrition messages and healthy food choices. This includes coordination of nutrition education with the cafeteria and the promotion of healthy food choices in the cafeteria and all School events, such as fundraisers.

The School should encourage parents to pack healthy lunches and snacks and to refrain from including beverages and foods that do not meet the School's nutrition standards for individual foods and beverages. The School will also encourage the use of foods that comply with Smart Snacks in Schools standards for any classroom celebrations involving food. The School will provide parents a list of foods that meet the School's snack standards and ideas for healthy celebrations/parties, rewards, and fundraising activities.

Parental Opt-Out Form for Sex Education

I, _____, parent/guardian of _____, request that my child be removed from class and/or student activities when planned instruction is given in the subject of:

- Sex Education
- HIV/AIDS Education

I understand a philosophy of abstinence is a part of and the underlying principal in the school's education instruction. Because this alone may not prevent pregnancies and sexually transmitted disease, the Board allows for instruction in sex education including AIDS awareness and sexually transmitted diseases, birth control, and general human sexuality. In all cases the known scientific facts will be taught, utilizing the Harbor Method, not the opinions or moral judgments of the instructor. This does not preclude giving impartial view points on both sides of issues such as the right to an abortion or on the use of birth control methods.

Parent and Family Engagement Guidelines

In order to achieve the level of parent and family engagement outlined in Victory Charter School Policy 2420, these procedures guide the development of the school's annual parental involvement plan designed to foster a cooperative effort among parents, school, and community.

Guidelines

Parent involvement activities will include opportunities for:

1. Volunteering;
2. Parent education;
3. Home support for the child's education; and
4. Parent participation in school decision making.

Victory Charter School will provide opportunities for professional development and resources for staff, parents, and the community regarding effective parent involvement practices. The school also encourages the inclusion of family literacy when a substantial number of students have parents who do not have a secondary school diploma or its recognized equivalent or have low levels of literacy.

Roles and Responsibilities

It is the responsibility of the student to:

1. Cooperate with school personnel and be responsible for their behavior;
2. Complete all homework assignments on time;
3. Participate to the best of their ability in all classes;
4. Read independently or with family on a regular basis;

Parental Rights

The Board of Directors encourages parents/guardians to be involved in their student's school activities and academic progress. As required by IC 33-6001, the Charter School reinforces the rights and responsibilities of parents as primary stakeholders to make decisions regarding the upbringing and control of their child.

The Board is mandated to adhere to laws, rules, and regulations including the Constitution of the State of Idaho; the rules of the Idaho State Board of Education (Idaho Administrative Procedures Act); the rules and regulations of the Idaho State Department of Education; the laws, rules, and regulations of the federal government and the U.S. Department of Education; as well as educational provisions outlined in the Idaho Code. These mandates include the requirement stated at Article IX, Section 1 of the Idaho Constitution that it is “. . . the duty of the Legislature of Idaho to maintain a general, uniform[,] and thorough system of public, free common schools.”

Based upon the above provisions, as well as the State's mandated requirements for advancement and graduation, Victory Charter School has established its practices, policies, and procedures as well as the approved curriculum and assessment program. Failure to follow the School's practices, policies, and procedures as well as the School's curriculum and assessment program amounts to a Victory Charter School violation of State and/or federal laws, rules, and regulations by the School, including but not limited to the failure to provide a general, thorough, free, and uniform system of public education as well as putting the School's operations and funding in jeopardy.

Parents/guardians and students are expected to abide by the Charter School's practices, policies, and procedures governing the operation of the school which are required by various State and/or federal laws, rules, and regulations. However, a student's parent/guardian has the right to reasonable academic accommodation if the accommodation does not substantially impact School staff and resources, including employee working conditions, safety, and supervision on school premises for school activities, and the efficient allocation of expenditures. Victory Charter School will strive to balance the rights of parents/guardians, the educational needs of other students, the academic and behavioral impacts to a classroom, teachers' workloads, and the assurance of the safe and efficient operations of the school.

If a parent/guardian has an objection to the Charter School's implementation of various mandates through the School's practices, policies, and procedures, or if a parent/guardian would like to request reasonable academic accommodation, the appropriate avenue for the parent/guardian is to first seek to address such concerns through communication with the Charter School's administration. Should that avenue not resolve the situation, a parent/guardian is free to address such concerns with the Board of Directors in conformance with Board policy regarding public participation at Board meetings.

A parent/guardian who has an objection to their child’s participation in the Charter School’s adopted curriculum and/or the School’s implementation of practices, policies, and procedures in accordance with educational mandates on the basis that it harms the child or impairs the parent/guardian's firmly held beliefs, values, or principles, may withdraw their child from the activity, class, or program. Except in the case of sex education curriculum, a parent/guardian who chooses to not have their child participate in the provided educational activity shall be responsible for identification and provision of non-disruptive alternative educational activities for their child during any time of objection, at no cost to the Charter School. The final decision as to the placement of such alternative educational activity shall be at the discretion of the Charter School, with input of the parent, consistent with the requirements for advancement and graduation and consistent with the reasonable accommodation requirements outlined above.

In the case of dual credit courses offered by an institution of higher education, academic accommodations and excusing students from objectionable assignments is solely at the discretion of the course provider and not the Charter School. The Charter School has no control over the selection, adoption, and removal of curricular materials and it is the responsibility of the parent to have knowledge of and/or review such prior to student enrollment.

Access to Learning Materials

Parents/guardians are entitled to review all learning materials, instructional materials, and other teaching aids used in their student’s classroom. Parents/guardians can request access to learning materials by contacting the school’s administration during school hours.

Student Wellbeing

If a member of the School’s staff becomes aware of a change in the student’s mental, emotional, or physical health or well-being the staff member shall report this change so the student’s parent/guardian can be notified as described in Procedure 2425.

Addressing Parent/Guardian Concerns

A parent/guardian who feels the School has violated their rights, as described in this policy and otherwise provided in IC 33-6001 may file a grievance as described in Policy 4120 Uniform Grievance Policy.

Notice

Victory Charter School shall annually provide parents/guardians with notice of their rights as specified in this policy.

Promotion/Retention

The Board recognizes that students of the same age are at many intellectual and developmental levels and that these differences are a normal part of human development. Because of these differences, the administration and teaching staff are directed to make every effort to develop an enriching and challenging curricula and programs, consistent with the school's approved Charter and the Harbor Method™ philosophy, which meet the individual and unique needs of all students and allow them to remain with their age cohorts.

It is the philosophy of the Charter School that students thrive best when placed or promoted to grade levels with other students who have compatible age, physical, and social/emotional status. It is our philosophy to promote students who demonstrate effort within those compatibilities. However, it is equally our philosophy and practice to retain students who do not make a reasonable effort to meet grade level expectations, as long as those expectations are commensurate with the individual student's ability and rate of learning.

The decision with regard to promotion or retention of a student will be made by the administration. While the teacher recommendation, student performance, and parent desires will be weighed heavily, ultimately, the decision needs to be based upon the best long-term educational interests of the child. Final disposition of all such placement decisions will rest with the administration, subject to review by the Governing Board.

Should any issue arise as to the appropriateness of a promotion or retention decision, the following considerations shall be utilized by the school in rendering such a decision:

1. Tests and Test Results

Tests and test results refer to Charter School-approved tests to measure attainment of the essential learner results at grades two through ten. Charter School approved tests will be administered to all pupils in grades K – 10. The test results in grades K – 8 will be used in making promotion decisions. The results in grades 9 and 10 will be used in making placement decisions and graduation.

Charter School Approved Test is: The Idaho Standard Achievement Tests (I-SAT)

2. Charter School Promotion Standards

Pupil promotion in subsequent school years will be achieved:

- 1) by scoring on approved tests at or above the Promotion Standards with “proficient” as determined by the State Board of Education

2) by passing at least 80 percent of the seven core content areas, (social studies, math, science, reading, language/writing, attitude, effort) attempted in the four quarters of 8th grade, complete instruction in career exploration, and be in compliance with the School's attendance policy.

Class standing in the high school will require the following:

Freshmen will be those students with 11 or fewer credits;
Sophomores will be those students with 12 to 23 credits;
Juniors will be those students with 24 to 35 credits;
Seniors will be those students with more than 36 credits;

Credits for Community and Family Service, Apprenticeships, and Speech Symposium are not counted in determining class standing.

3. Exceptions

1. Individual Education Plans (IEP) for pupils qualified under the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act will establish requirements for promotion and/or graduation.
2. Plans for accommodations and adaptations for pupils qualified under Section 504 of the Americans with Disabilities Act may establish requirements for promotion and/or graduation if a multidisciplinary team determines this is appropriate.
3. Promotions and/or graduation decisions for pupils classified as "Beginner," or "Early Intermediate" in English proficiency that have been attending English language schools for less than 3 years shall be made by a multidisciplinary team.
4. Pupils who, by September 1 of the school year, are found to be two or more years older than the age normally expected for a grade level may be promoted, if it is determined by a multiple disciplinary team that promotion is in the best interest of all concerned.

4. Notification

Prior to a decision to retain a pupil, substantial contact with parents/guardians should be made in a concerted effort to show efforts made to prevent pupil failure or retention. Substantial contact with parents may include face-to-face meetings at the school or home, telephone conversations, and/or written notices. A minimum of written notices shall be in the form of progress reports every four and a half weeks from the time that teachers determine the pupil to be at risk of retention.

Parents will be notified of possible retention by spring parent/teacher conferences.

In cases where the home language is other than English, communication will be made in the parents'/guardians' language as well as in English.

It will be the responsibility of the classroom teacher or multidisciplinary team to secure documentation of the parents'/guardians' timely receipt of notice under this section.

If a pupil is to be retained, this will be noted on the report card in a section labeled "Assignment for Next Year" and on the pupil's permanent record.

5. Appeal

Should the pupil's parent or guardian wish to appeal the retention decision, the principal will aid them in contacting the superintendent for that purpose. Should the appeal not be resolved, the parent or guardian may then appeal to the Board of Trustees. Appeals to the Board of Trustees shall be in writing and shall be in the hands of the Clerk/Treasurer of the Board no later than July 1st. Board of Trustees decision regarding appeals from grade level retention are final. Such appeals will be heard in executive session.
