Volleyball Seniors "Serve" Appreciation

Senior members of the RHS girls' volleyball team recently gave balls to teachers who have made an impact on them. Camryn Bucci and Izabelle Walsh gave theirs to Ms. Kenney and Mrs. Leasure, Riley Lewis gave hers to Mrs. Zurenski, Ryann Lape gave hers to Mr. Laukaitis, Izabella Soderholm gave hers to Mrs. Holmes, and Megan Kopp gave hers to Mr. Muraco.

Career Exploration Holds Mock Fair

Students in Mrs. Trice-Kolar's Career Exploration class recently put on a mock Career Fair featuring careers in which they've shown interest. Students researched the careers and created posters to present their findings. Students took turns being "presenters" and "attendees," the latter asking questions so students could further display their knowledge of the career they researched.

RHS would like to thank the Ginger Hill Grange for compiling and donating personal care packages to our RHS Care Closet! We'd also like to thank the Monongahela Crochet Club for donating adorable feminine care product pouches for our students' use!

RHS Shows HOCO Spirit

Last week, RHS participated in several theme days to show their school spirit. On Friday's "Blue and Gold" Day, the RHS teachers proudly sported their REA shirts. On Tuesday's "Anything But a Backpack" Day, Kamden Kray and Alex Barna chose scooters to carry themselves and their stuff while Raiden Sammons chose a grill to contain his items. How creative!

Students Get Fired Up About Homecoming!

This past Tuesday, the RHS Student Council brought back the tradition of celebrating HOCO with a bonfire! Mr. Skrinjorich and Dr. Saraceni manned the grill, serving up delicious burgers and hot dogs!

A SHOW SO GOOD, IT'S SCARY!

On Thursday, October 17th, RHS Drama and Choir students treated an audience to a night of spooky, silly fun at their production of Scared Silly! The play featured several "scary" scenes separated by fun, Halloween-themed songs!

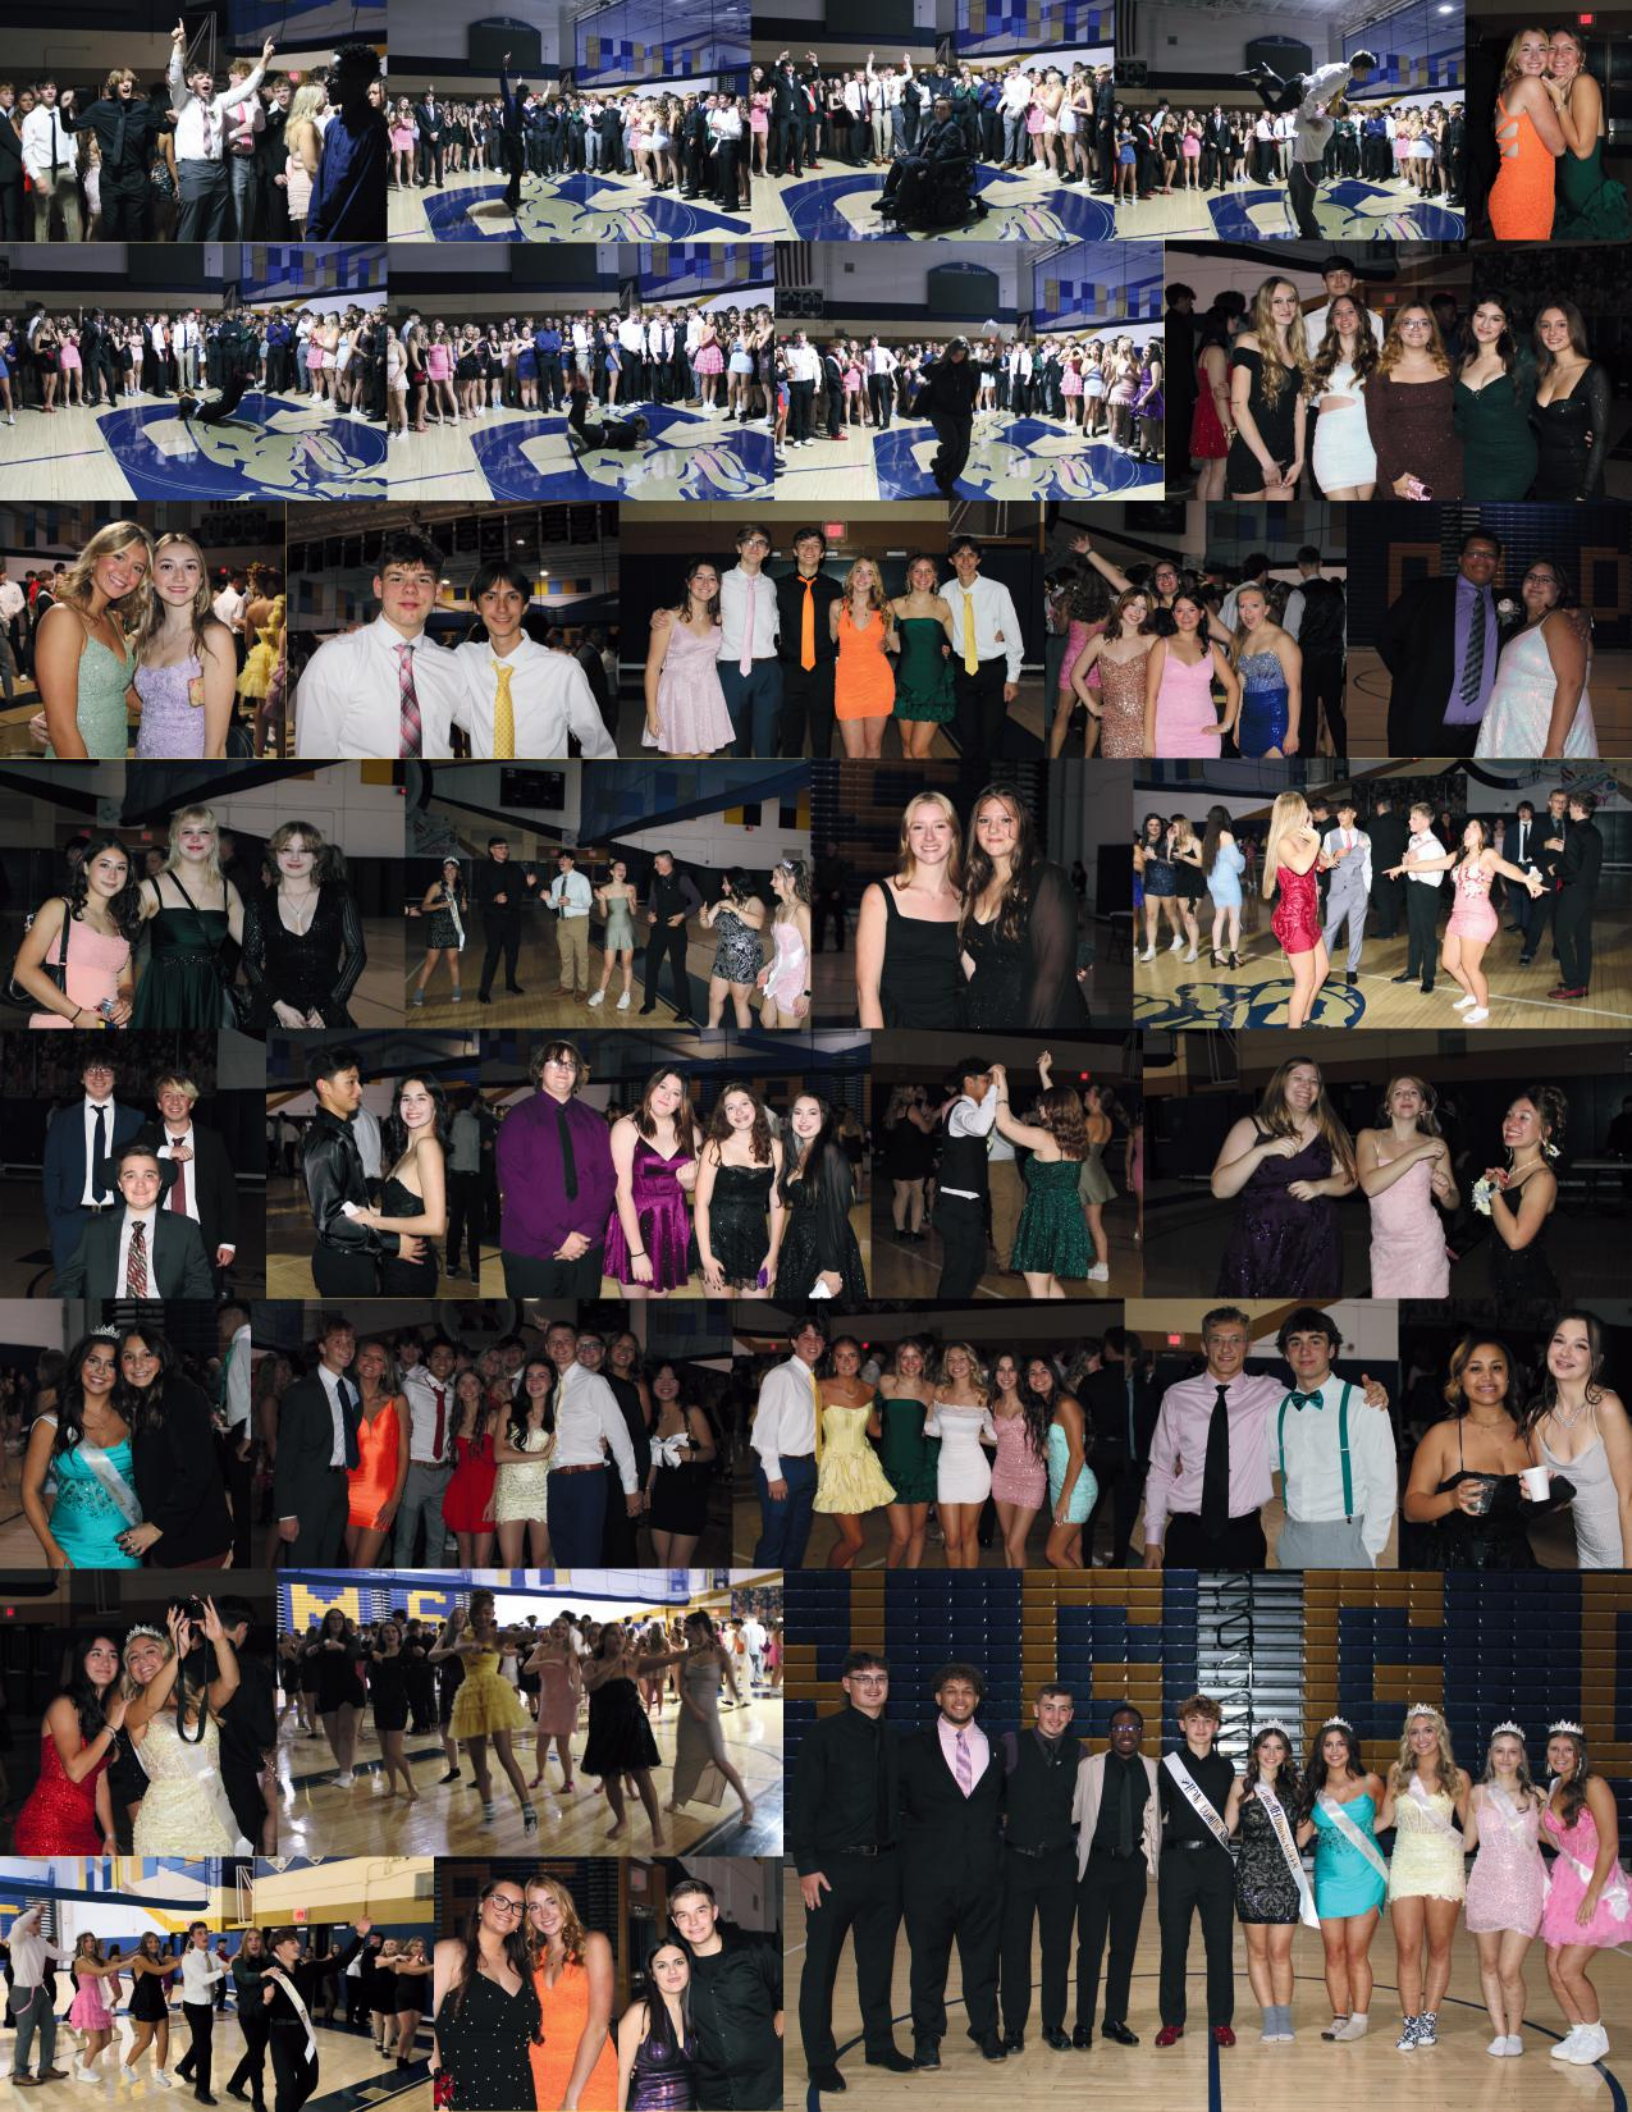

HOCO
PEP RALLY

On Friday, October 18th, RHS held its first pep rally of the year! Fall sports and the Homecoming Court were honored during the event. There were also fun activities, including a teacher hot dog-eating contest (in which Mr. Johnston was victorious!) and a student relay race!

RHS Graduate Pays a Virtual Visit

On Thursday, October 17th, Ringgold Learners Engaged in Achievement Discussions virtually hosted Mackenzie Miller, a graduate of the RHS Class of 2018. Miller spoke to interested students about his current job as an audio engineer at Ogunquit Playhouse in Ogunquit, Maine and the path he took to get there. He also discussed the plays and short film that he wrote and the musical he is in the process of writing. He encouraged students to share their goals with others in the hopes that they will find like-minded peers who can help bring them to fruition. We're so proud of all that Miller has accomplished!
