News Release

Winton, NC - Hertford County Board of Education Appoints Beshelya Smith as Principal of Riverview Elementary School

Ms. Smith is a highly accomplished educational professional with a robust academic and career background. She is a 1998 graduate of Hertford County High School (HCHS) and holds a Bachelor of Science in Accounting from Elizabeth City State University (2002), followed by a Master of Business Administration from East Carolina University (2003).

Ms. Smith has also earned several licenses to strengthen her qualifications, including a Business, Information and Technology Education License (2015) and a Career Development and Special Populations License (2017). In May 2020, she completed her Master of School Administration from Elizabeth City State University, solidifying her leadership skills for this role.

Ms. Smith is committed to fostering a strong academic foundation for students at Riverview Elementary, ensuring they are well-prepared for both college and career pathways. Outside of her professional life, she enjoys reading, planning, cooking, and gardening.

Superintendent Dr. Jesse J. Pratt expressed his enthusiasm about this appointment, confident that Ms. Smith will continue advancing the progress at Riverview Elementary School and help its students grow.
