

CRIMINAL JUSTICE

Join our Criminal Justice Pathway to explore in-depth practices of the legal system, law enforcement, and criminal behavior!

This pathway is designed for students interested in understanding the foundations of crime prevention, prosecution, and rehabilitation.

The curriculum in this pathway covers topics such as criminal law, the role of law enforcement agencies, the court system, and corrections. Students will engage in critical discussions, case studies, and hands-on projects that highlight real-world applications of criminal justice principles.

Through this course, students will develop analytical, ethical, and communication skills essential for careers in law enforcement, legal studies, and public policy.
