

EMPLOYEE DATING

The District recognizes that an environment where employees maintain clear boundaries between personal and workplace interactions is most effective for conducting business. This policy does not prevent the development of friendships or romantic relationships between employees. However, employees in supervisory/managerial positions are precluded from having a romantic relationship with any subordinate employee.

EMPLOYEE DATING - ADMINISTRATIVE REGULATIONS

1. Employee Responsibilities:

Employees are prohibited from engaging in physical contact that would in any way be deemed inappropriate by a reasonable person while anywhere on District property, in a District vehicle, or on District business whether or not such physical contact occurs during work hours.

Violation of this policy may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination.

2. Supervisor/Manager Responsibilities:

Employees employed in supervisory/managerial positions are prohibited from engaging in a romantic relationship with a subordinate employee. Employees employed in supervisory/managerial positions need to be cognizant of their status as role models, their access to sensitive information, and their ability to influence others.

Violation of this policy may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination.
