ITEM: APPROVE DISTRICT CALENDARS FOR THE SCHOOL YEARS 2024-25 AND 2025-26

BACKGROUND

Cardiff School District is in the final year of Board-adopted calendars, and it is time to approve District calendars for the coming years.

San Dieguito Union High School District (SDUHSD), our grade 7-12 feeder district, has Board-approved calendars for the 2024-25 and 2025-26 school years. In 2021, SDUHSD adjusted their academic calendar to have students return to school one week earlier in August and end the year one week earlier in late May/early June. The one-week shift was implemented to align their semester system to have finals take place before winter break so that students and staff could have a true winter recess. The SDUHSD calendar aligns with the majority of middle and high school instructional calendars and the CIF sports seasons and provides more instructional time before state and national testing dates.

CURRENT CONSIDERATIONS:

Two sets of calendars and survey data are provided for consideration.

Version A: Align To Our Feeder District

The Version A draft calendars propose a continued alignment with the SDUHSD start/end date. To provide consistency for staff and families with elementary as well as middle/high school-aged children, our district has routinely adopted calendars that largely align with the SDUHSD calendar.

Version B: Start and End One Week Later Than Our Feeder District

The Version B draft calendars propose school starting one week later than SDUHSD in August and ending one week later than SDUHSD, in June. This calendar favors traditional local weather patterns and follows a schedule from earlier years when our local school districts had a later start and end date. Student attendance and custodial care for families with students in both Cardiff and SDUHSD could be affected by a staggered start and end date.

FINANCIAL IMPLICATIONS:

None

RECOMMENDATION:

It is respectfully recommended that the Board review and approve Version A or Version B of the proposed District calendars for 2024-25 and 2025-26.
