

Week 4th – 8th November: Honesty

This week we mark the start our reflections on the second of our C.H.R.I.S.T. values at Slough & Eton – Honesty.

Wisdom from Spiritual Traditions

So then, putting away falsehood, let all of us speak the truth to our neighbours, for we are members of one another. (Ephesians 4:25)

O believers! Be mindful of Allah and be with the truthful. (At-Tawbah Q 9:119)

Austerity of speech consists in speaking words that are truthful, pleasing, beneficial and not agitating to others. (Bhagavad Gita 17.15)

Life in all its fullness – John 10:1-10

Reflection

God of truth,
by our words and our actions
our lives and our intentions are laid open to others:
give us courage to measure up to nothing less than the truth that you are,
that in honesty of living
we may enjoy life in its fulness. Amen.
