

Welcome To Our MERIT Family!

2024-2025

Latin

With a final goal of successful completion of the AP Latin course in mind, we are proud to offer Latin 1 and 2 at TCMS to jumpstart the students' journeys. The middle school courses attempt an interactive and hands-on approach to understanding the Latin language, people, and their impact on modern society.

Let us help you...

Avoid Merit Mania!

Your role as a MERIT parent...

- Create an environment conducive for homework.
- Allow time for homework in your family afternoon and evening schedule.
- Stay connected to those valuable remind feeds in order to be informed.
- Check infinite campus often so that you are aware of any missing assignments.
- Don't Do their work, just aide them with time Management and organization. It is okay for them to wrestle with an assignment.
- Email Your child's Merit teachers if you have concerns. We are here for you!

Have Realistic Expectations

- Anticipate a dip in grades. Don't Panic! This is VARSITY ACADEMICS!
- Expect one to two hours of homework daily.
- Some Assignments may require computer use/technology at home.
- Expect a probation letter IF your child's academic average drops below 85% at the end of the first semester. A plan will be developed to help your child find success!
- Get ready for many achievements, many unique experiences, and a whole lot of fun!

Speaking of fun….

- Be sure to follow MERIT on Facebook!
- Get Excited and inquire about MERIT IN MOTION ! (Field Experiences)
- Be on the lookout for the 4th annual Merit Movie Night family Event in the Spring!
- Be Aware that if your child earns a Region or State win they will celebrate their accomplishments in the rose parade! How exciting!
- Do not miss the MERIT showcase at the conclusion of an awesome year!

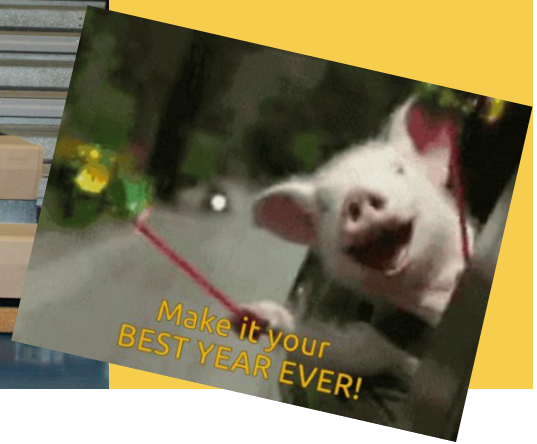

Let's turn MERIT Mania ...

… into MERIT Marvelous!!!
