(TRACY, CA) – Winners of Congressman Harder's 2024 Educator Impact Awards were celebrated on October 23rd at the Stockton Campus of Stanislaus State. Nominations were accepted for individuals within California's 9th Congressional District. These nominations included teachers, administrators, substitutes, coaches, support staff, and more.

Tracy Unified School District is pleased to announce three recipients of these awards from our district:

Tammy Jalique, Administrator of the Year
Jacqui Nott, Principal of the Year
Jessica Almaraz, Counselor of the Year

TUSD congratulates all winners of these awards and appreciates their efforts, dedication and impact on our students.

"These three individuals represent excellence. Our community is very lucky to have their positive presence," said, Dr. Rob Pecot, Superintendent.
