Superintendent's Message

Superintendent
Roy Belson

Among the unalienable rights identified in the Declaration of Independence - "the pursuit of happiness" - is the most open-ended and elusive. Government cannot guarantee it and contemporary society creates limitless desires that obstruct its attainment. High School diplomas and advanced degrees cannot confer it. Without it, even the greatest accomplishments will never bring you fulfillment. Therefore, no education at any level is complete until you have committed yourself to its legitimate pursuit. As the great Roman Emperor and Philosopher Marcus Aurelius wrote, "Very little is needed to make a happy life. It is all within yourself.....in your own way of thinking.." Still, despite the Aurelian revelation, too many otherwise worthy individuals never achieve "real" happiness.

Do not confuse happiness with the acquisition of material possessions or creature comforts. The popular witticism, "The person who has the most toys when he/she dies wins," is a falsehood. You will be confronted with temptations and objects that seem big and irresistible. One minute they are vital and the next they are surpassed by something else. The absurdity of materialism and self-indulgence is obvious but remarkably compelling and addictive. True happiness in life is more dependent upon having interests rather than upon having possessions and comforts. The happiest people don't always have the best of everything; instead they make the best of everything. You do not achieve happiness at the end of the road, but rather along the way. At the end of every day take a few quiet moments to reflect and recall a high point. Dare to dream; keep your hopes alive; and incorporate humor and laughter. Don't let little matters keep you down. The human mind can endure a heavy load of reality, but very little gloom and doom. Don't starve your spirit by concentrating solely on the wants of your body. Strike a healthy balance. The reward will be substantial. Author Robert Louis Stevenson wrote, "The habit of being happy enables one to be freed, or largely freed from the domination of outward conditions."

As you graduate please accept my congratulations for your achievement and my best wishes for a life of true happiness. Remember, the world always looks brighter from behind a smile.

Headmaster's Message

Headmaster
Salvatore Todaro

May your four years of hard work and dedication open the doors to your lifetime pursuits. The educational and social experiences realized at Medford High School will help each of you to interpret society and all of its complexities.

Society offers each of you an opportunity to enter on a path of life rich with meaning and purpose. The goal is yours to set; the striving is yours to endure; the reward will be yours in achievement.

Each of you may experience detours before realizing a lasting path to happiness and success. Always keep in mind that life, in general, is compromised of boundless experiences which may not always be to your liking. It is, therefore incumbent upon each of you to use your attained wealth of knowledge to help you to find the path that will bring you fulfillment.

My charge to each member of the Class of 1997 is to never become discouraged in the face of diversity, but to maintain your composure and draw on your reservoir of experiences in reaching acceptable outcomes. In doing so, you will have to call upon your creative abilities to help you filter through ambiguous situations.

As each of you pursues a lifestyle consistent with your abilities and your wants, I wish all of you boundless help and success throughout all of your personal endeavors.

I should like to leave the Class of 1997 with some thoughts from Ralph Waldo Emerson's essay, "Self-Reliance."

"...Let us afront and reprimand the smooth mediocraty and squalid contentment of the times, and hurl in fact of custom and trade and office, the fact which is the upshot of all history, that there is a great responsible thinker and actor working wherever a man works; that true man belongs to no other place, but in the center of things."

Vocational Director's Message

Vocational Director
Lawrence R. Volpe

On behalf of the faculty, staff, and administration of Medford Vocational Technical High School, I would like to congratulate the Class of "97" on a job well done. Your dedication to learning, sensitivity to the needs of others, tireless work ethic and your keen sense of right and wrong have laid a strong foundation for success for this graduating class. You have taken advantage of the opportunities presented to you at Medford High School and you are now ready to put your education to work in the real world. Whether you go on to post-secondary education, enter the military, or explore the world of work, you have the skills to be successful. Your teachers have taught you well and have given you the ability to communicate, compute, think critically, and have the background necessary to be a solid citizen in this complex society.

Set your goals high and be willing to commit the effort to accomplish them. Always strive to be all that you can be because realization of your potential will bring you peace and happiness, as Ralph Waldo Emerson once said, "The future belongs to those who prepare for it." Anything that is worthwhile does not come easy. Dedication, perseverance, task orientation, and a strong work ethic are all necessary ingredients in the attainment of our goals. We need to take full advantage of the talents and abilities that have been bestowed upon us and maximize our strengths while minimizing our weakness. If you do this, you will be building a strong foundation upon which you can build a successful and fruitful life.

As we approach the 21st century, you must realize that you will be relied upon to be tomorrow's leaders. You must be willing to step up to the plate in a family setting, the work place, the political arena, or society in general and make a contribution to making this world a better place. Stop the violence and live in peace. The Golden Rule still rings true, "do unto others as you would have done unto you." You have reached a milestone in your life and you should be proud of this accomplishment. Remember, however, that education is a life long process. After you walk across the stage at Hormel Stadium, take the time to thank the people that have helped you.

Thank You!

Class Advisors:
Mr. Sullivan
&
Ms. DeCristofaro

The Class of 1997 would like to thank those who have helped us from the beginning.

Senior Submaster Mr. Polcari
&
Senior Guidance Counselor Mr. Carr

The 1997 Blue & White Dedication

William A. Carr

Senior Guidance Counselor

It is the esteemed honor of the 1997 Blue & White Yearbook to present this year's Yearbook Dedication to Senior Guidance Counsellor, Mr. William Carr.

Mr. Carr, a 1956 graduate of Boston College, served in the Army shortly after the completion of his Liberal Arts Degree. Upon his return, Mr. Carr submitted an application to Medford Public Schools, and in 1960 became a teacher at the Lincoln Junior High School. In 1969, he was welcomed into the faculty at Medford High School, where a few years later he became a guidance counselor.

In this, his final year at MHS, the Class of '97 would like to recognize a truly dedicated teacher, counsellor, and friend. On behalf of the Senior student body, thank you, Mr. Carr, for all you've done for us.

*This section is dedicated to the late:
Ronald Guidice*

Ronald Guidice was small in stature, but he was wise, he was understanding, and he was kind. As a teacher, Mr. Guidice was able to balance the difficult task of education with the sensitive task of motivation. For his wisdom, we honor him. For his understanding, we thank him. For his kindness, we will remember him - forever.

Members of the African Cultural Club

African Cultural Club

This club, under the leadership of Mr. Finner, explores African-American heritage. This group is involved in a multitude of activities, including a bake sale at the College Fair, and a project at the Winter Carnival in February. In addition to this, they are also putting together a project to assist a relief project in Rwanda. The officers are President Paulette D'Oyley, Vice President Steve Lamour, Secretary Kissy Silva, and Treasurer Tiffany Pinckney.

Members of the Asian Club

Asian Club

This club, under the direction of Ms. Liu, offers MHS students the opportunity to expose themselves to Asian culture, as well as offering Asian students an outlet to their culture. The nationalities covered in this club range from Chinese and Japanese, to Vietnamese and Cambodian. The officers are: President Johnson Ip, Vice-President Diem Tu, Treasurer Vien Vo, and Secretary Janice Geronimo.

Members of the MHS Band

Band

Mrs. Caron and Mr. Bullock, are the conductors for the musically talented MHS band. Besides their musical inclination, these members are full of MHS pride, playing at the Mustang football games, and the pep rally, as well as their winter and spring concerts. Officers are: President Jeff Notaro, Vice President David Zazula, Treasurer Tom Farragher, Secretary Sarah Grant, Librarian Jordana Zazula, and Drum Majors Jeff Notaro and Tom Farragher.

Members of the MHS Chorus

Chorus

Mr. Bullock and Mrs. Caron are also the teachers for the MHS Chorus. This year, the Chorus put on a terrific Winter and Spring Concert, a mainstay at MHS. Aside to this, these future singers delight the city of Boston with their rendition of much-loved christmas carols at Fanuel Hall.

Members of the Computer Club

Computer Club

This is the Computer Club's first year, under the guidance of Mr. McCormack and Mr. Sullivan. The students intend to build their own computer, as well as to put Medford on the map, so to speak. They plan to make a web page for MHS on the Internet. The officers include Co-Presidents Jon Ellse, and Sam Collins, Vice President Cheryl Candora, Treasurer Jenn Sullivan, and Secretary Mike Joy.

Members of the Drama Club

Drama Club

Newcomer Ms. Diozzi directs these theatrical students in the MHS drama productions. This year's production of Fiddler on the Roof is the main focus of the Drama Club, since the children's Holiday Revue, a smashing success, is already in the past. The officers are: President Andrew Mueller, Vice-President Lara Jirmanus, Secretary Margaret Collins, and Treasurer Cristina DiRenzo.

Members of the Gay-Straight Alliance

Gay-Straight Alliance

This alliance is basically a committee to help inform both the students and the faculty of MHS about alternative lifestyles, as well as eliminate discrimination between groups. Mrs. Tauber advises these members on how to break down the barriers among gays, lesbians, and straight members of society. The main officers of this club are seniors: Lara Jirmanus, Melissa Callahan, Jana Corrado, and Alicia McSweeney.

Members of the MHS Jazz Band

Jazz Band

Mr. Bullock is again the leader of this band, a smaller, select version of the band, with more of a jazz and blues style and sound to it. Their music diverges from the regular band, but they participate in the same concerts, both winter and spring.

Key Club

The Key Club, advised by Mr. Griffin, is very active in the community, sponsoring MHS's annual blood drive, and working with mentally challenged children, in addition to their other numerous activities. The Key Club officers are: President Andrew Scalese, Vice-President Amy Galasso, Secretary Veronica Travaglione, and Treasurer Andrea Tringali.

"M" Club

Mr. Matatall and Mr. Smith are the two advisors who head this large group of elite athletes. This club is designed to benefit students that participate in high school athletics on the varsity level. The "M" Club executive board, elected by its members, plan activities and fundraisers throughout the year.

Math Team

Mr. Delano and his group of "mathletes" attack challenging math contests every week. Members take mathematical problems and studies to a new, more competitive level in order to better their knowledge of such concepts.

Mustang News

This newspaper is a forum for creative students, and aspiring journalists alike. Under the supervision of newly appointed advisor Mr. McCormack, The Mustang News is a quarterly paper reporting exclusive, newsworthy issues relevant to MHS students and faculty. The staff includes Managing Editors: Lauren Maggio, Lara Jirmanus, and Pat Manning.

National Honor Society

Community service is the key activity of these honor students, and their advisor, Mrs. Malatesta. Besides tutoring students in MHS, they actively participated in Operation Overcoat, the annual Flu Clinic, OXFAM, and Toys for Tots. The officers are: President Lara Jirmanus, Vice-President Lenny Rizzuto, Secretary Kristen Sullivan, Treasurer Andrea Tringali, and School Committee Representative Veronica Travaglione.

Orchestra

These talented musicians practice classical pieces under the direction of advisor Mrs. Anderson. This year, the Orchestra played in a multitude of arenas, including the Winter and Spring Concerts, as well as a holiday concert at Fanuel Hall in Boston.

Peerleaders

Much like the name implies, this group is for leadership-oriented students who are interested in helping their fellow students through counseling and mediation. Aside from this, under advisor Mr. Camarra, they take part in community services, such as the recently instituted campaign against littering in MHS. The Executive Board includes: Maria Lanzerotta, Amy Galasso, Ralph DiVito, Jenn O'Neill, and Andrew Scalese.

Philosophy & Ethics

This group of students discuss theories of renowned philosophers every week. Under the direction of Advisor Mrs. Mann, member are guided through the enigmas of reality and modern-day ethics.

Members of the Poetry Club

Poetry Club

Kate Sheridan founded this club last year for student interested in voicing their own literary talents. Now entering its second year, the club has already published one anthology of poetic works, and are on their way to a second. This club provides a forum for students who wish to share their poetry with their peers. Active students in the poetry club, under advisor Mrs. Dudley, are: Jana Corrado, Lara Jirmanus, Kate Sheridan, and Melissa Callahan.

Members of the Pre-Med Club

Pre-Med Club

These future medical students are actively involved in the medical field, writing articles for the annual Pre-Med Bulletin, as well as enjoying numerous guest speakers from all parts of the medical community, thanks to the help of advisor Mrs. Tauber.

Members of Project EPIIC

Project EPIIC

Mr. Finner guides these politically correct students through the intricacies of world government. This year, these students are studying the politics and government of Mexico, in preparation for their world simulation at Tufts University in the spring.

Members of SADD

SADD

This organization, also headed by Mr. Griffin, stands for Students Against Driving Drunk. This group mainly executes activities to help teach students about the dangers and hazards of drunk driving, as well as creating a simulation to act it out. SADD members are: President Andrew Scalese, Vice-President Amy Galasso, Secretary Veronica Travaglione, and Treasurer Andrea Tringali.

Science Team

These future scientists, instructed by Mr. Lazzaro, compete in the North Shore Science League, making an impressive showing every time they enter. They excel in such events as analyzing scientific ideas, and building various science-related structures. This year, the Science team, led by their Co-Captains Jeff Notaro and Dave Zazula, placed highly with their working catapults, bridge building, and rocket building.

Ski Club

These snow-bound seniors exercise their skill on the slopes. Advised by Mr. Sullivan and Mr. Lazzaro, they excel at the various ski areas to which they travel to. This year, despite the small amount of fallen snow, the Ski Club is still in the midst of planning its next trip down the slopes, thanks to President Katie Yaeger.

Student Council

These members, under the direction of Mrs. Blumsack, function as representatives to the faculty. They present the concerns and ideas of the student body, as well as organizing successful programs. Their programs included Winter Carnival, and the Thanksgiving food drive. Officers include: President Maria Lanzerotta, Vice-President Ralph DiVito, Treasurer Andrea Tringali, Secretary Keri Miraglia.

Submaster's Council

This council of senior students, advised by Submaster Mr. Polcari, is a go-between from the students to the faculty. The students on the council communicate with the faculty about current issues at MHS. Aside from this, the council also works to increase "Mustang Pride," by encouraging students to take pride in their school, by such activities as trying to prevent littering on school grounds.

Fiesta!

Is it good, guys?

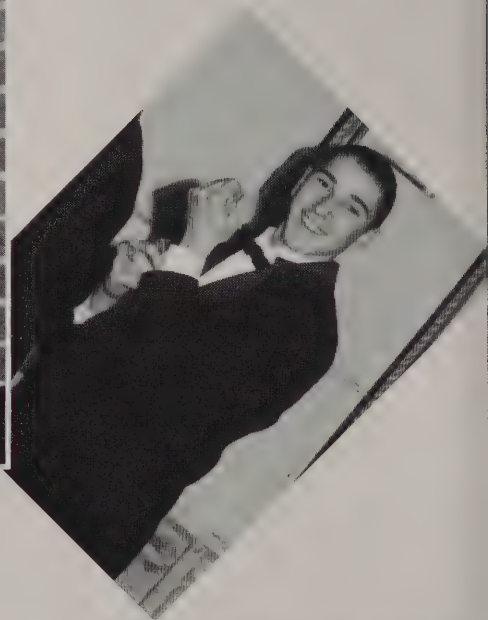

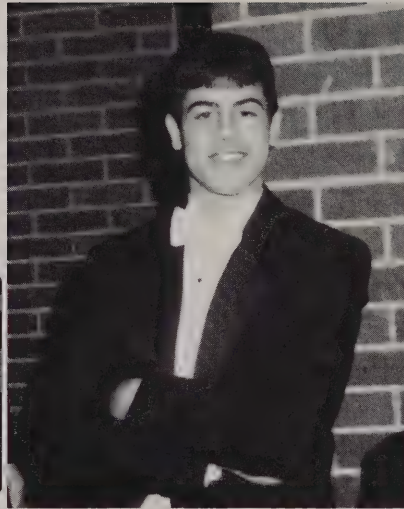

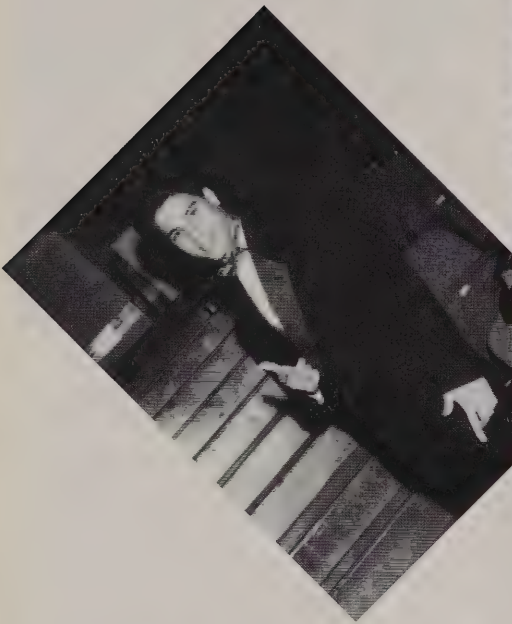

1, 2, 3, 4, Fenton got down on the floor!

Look at all this food!!

M.H.S. Gets

3 of a Kind

Here she is, Miss America...

On January 29, 1997, the Blue & White ran its annual Fashion Show. Dresses were sponsored by All That Glitters, and out tuxes came from Lee Elliot's Formal Wear. Senior Class advisor, Mr. Sullivan delighted the crowd as co-announcer to a seemingly flawless production thanks in part to our volunteer student models.

Sweetfully breathless!

Dressed for Success!

And the crowd goes wild!

Perfect pairs!

It's a guy thing.

Don't hate me because I'm beautiful.

Do I look O.K.?

On the catwalk.

Kristen Abbott
 Congratulations Kristen!
 May your future be blessed with as much happiness as you have given me. Love, Mom

Heather Ames
 You entered this world with your eyes wide-opened.
 Keep them open to every opportunity the future holds. With love and pride, Mom,
 Dad, and Ryan.

Melissa Badolato
 You are a wonderful daughter and sister. We wish you always the best of everything. Reach for the stars and the world will be yours! Love, Mommy, Daddy, Kristina, and Diana.

Robert Baldassari
 May the future
 hold great success.
 Stay happy-you have always made me proud. Love, Mom

Carla Lynn Baiungo Carla, we are very proud of you and knew you could do it.
 We hope you succeed in everything you do in the future.
 Love, Mom,
 Dad, & Joey

Kellie Barry
 You were such a wonderful child, and now you've grown to be a beautiful young lady. Remember though, you will always be our baby! We are so proud of you—Love Mom &
 Dad.

Suzanne Bartalini
 We are very proud of you.
 Our wish is that you be happy and healthy for the rest of your life. All our love, Mom, Dad, Cindy,
 and Anthony.

Brian Benedict Great job at M.H.S. Academically you shined, musically you harmonized, and athletically you led your teams with true Mustang Pride. You've made us proud.
 Keep it up! Love,
 Mom and Dad.

Andrew Berman
In the sport of life
you're an MVP.
We're as proud as we can be. Remember this game is far from done, but you're already hitting homeruns. Andrew you're a superstar, thanks for being who you are. We love you, Mom, Dad & Allie

Gina R. Bozzi
Gina, we wish you all the success and happiness one can endure. You are our greatest accomplishment. May all your dreams come true.
Love always,
Mom & Dad

Aaron Breen
It seems like yesterday you were saying
'Bye Mom, I love you' going off to grammar school, beautiful face and chubby cheeks. Now you're all grown up & off to college to a new begining. With all my love, Mom

Lucy Ann Marie Breen
To our daughter, whom we are so proud of,
may you go forth and succeed in making all your dreams reality. Love, Mom & Dad.

Michael Burpee Looking like a miniature prizefighter, you drew your first breath.
Now a handsome young man, you are intelligent with a sharp wit and strong will.
You will go far.

Melissa Callahan
While you grow and learn of life
all the wonderous things to do, we watch our precious baby go and we are always loving you.
You're the stars in our sky.
M o m m y &
Daddy

John Camuso
We're all very proud of you! You have accomplished many different things at your young age.
Keep on soaring above the clouds—let nobody stand in your way. Mom, Dad, Paul, Michael, & Baron

Cheryl Anne Candora
You are a very determined and independant young woman.
We know you will attain your goals. We love you very much and wish you the best in life. Love, Mom and Dad.

Tanya Charles

Tanya, at 10 months old you took your first step. Graduating from H.S. is another giant step to tomorrow. Look at what life has to offer and go for it, and always remember we love you! Good luck daughter dearest.

Marjorie Charmevil

I'm so proud of you honey. You make me so happy. You're the only daughter I have and you have a beautiful smile. I love you.

Jose Chavez

Jose, you came into the world so bright-eyed and eager to explore everything. Keep that joie de vivre; never underestimate yourself; always walk with the Lord.

Andrea Ciampaglia

All the dreams we prayed you'd be—are all the things you are.
You are every parent's dream come true. You'll always be our little princess. Love, Mom
& Dad

Linda Ciulla

Linda, Congratulations! We're very proud of
you. May you achieve success and happiness in all you do, and may all your wishes and dreams come true. Love, Mom, Dad, Michael,
Dawn, and Laura

Candice Clark

Well, see you later friends from Medford High, no more truck stealing for me, I have to move on. I wish you all the best of luck in the future. Especially JI, CC, RD, LC, JS, AB, KR, VG, ND, RD, JE, ML, and JC I hope to see you all in the future. CC I'm looking forward to seeing you this summer and if you ever have a problem with math in college you know who to call.
Now that my phone is going to be ringing off the hook, I guess I'll see you all later. I'd also like to thank my parents for all of their support that they gave me.

To Jill, the L.C + the P.qP, to Avalon and getting my car towed. To my awesome lacrosse team and K.M's 21st b-day part, and walking home after. To CC, JD andCO-keeping me in line. All my SM buddies and the joy they brought me. To MR Polcari's detention list, which I was "never" on! To my brother, my homeroom w/ Beagan, Sull, and Manzi's Eng. class, and finally to my awesome basketball "skills!" - yeah right! Hopes for the future: To make it through college and life alive! We'll see...

The one thing I must stop doing is scaring the hell out of people. I thought it was fun guessing people's birthdays but I must admit I was overboard at times. Also one message I have to all you kids is don't take tragic events in other parts of the USA too seriously, and it took the fun out of high school quite a bit. Live life and enjoy! Zupic rules! Good luck RS KP & CC.

Well, the monkeys are all dead, but General McArthur is too far gone to feel bad about it. Van den Budenmayer is still alive though, and I swear he has a place on Marlborough St. I guess in the end we all made our own pretty hate machines, but don't you worry about the day-glo orange life-preserver, cause everything's gonna be all right (Just ask Hoover!). Besides, women like that sort of thing, he said as she stared in disbelief, and we laughed. Don't worry, babe, someday we'll find our barricade.

Jenn Sullivan goes for gold.

This year's Girls' Cross Country Team, under the stellar coaching of Lou Ruggerio and Tommy Lynch, finished up with another great season. Under the leadership of senior Co-Captains Jenn Sullivan and Nikki Russell, the team battled its way to a third place showing in the GBL, with a record of 5-3. Junior mainstays Casey McBride, and Breanna Lungo contributed greatly to the team, as did Kristin Pero and Danielle Russell. Lungo finished ninth in the League Meet, earning herself a spot in the top ten, as well as brag rights as a League All-star. Russell and McBride were also chosen as League All-stars. The team earned themselves a third place tie with Waltham in the meet, also. The highlights of the season were the performances of sophomores Lauren Kong, and Lynn Patterson, a first year runner, senior Kristen Abbott, and the contribution by freshman Brenda Morelus.

Nikki Russell sprints to the finish!

Pat Toomey

David Zazula

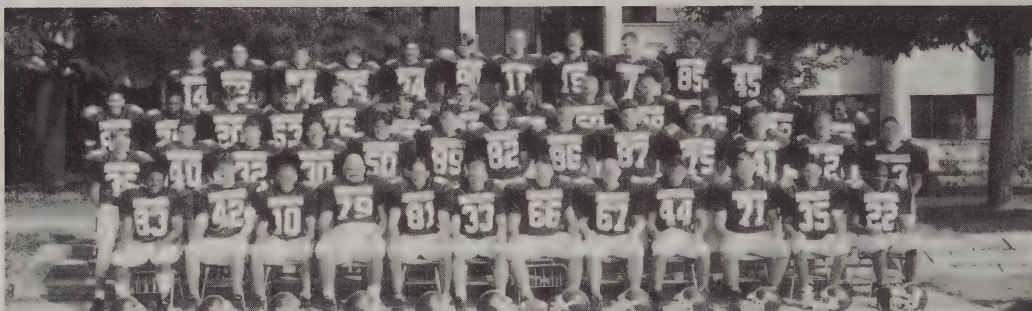

The boys cross country team also completed a good season with Co-Captains Pat Toomey and David Zazula, and coaches Lou Ruggerio and Tommy Lynch at the helm.

The boys finished with a 4-4 record, and a solid third place finish in the GBL League Meet. Toomey's performance earned him a fourth place finish, and Jordan Jones, a Sophomore, came in seventh. Both were League All-Stars.

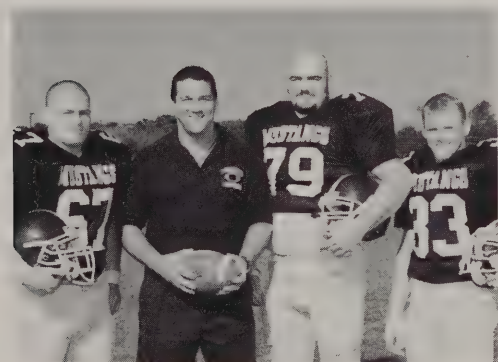

The team had many talented veterans, which included Juniors Rick Alpers, Steve Mancini, and Matt Duggan. The team was also supported by newcomer Sophomore Anthony Berriola, and a myriad of Freshman potential, including Paul Barrile, who medaled in a recent State Meet, Kevin Shea, and Charlie Hartnett.

Celebration time after the game!

Mustang football this year has come around. The 'Stangs have doubled their record from last season, defeating most of their opponents in the opening games of the season. Led by Tri-Captains Chuck Campobasso, Anthony Ciampoli, and David Deveau, the team played extremely well, despite their numerous injuries and difficulties.

Key Medford victories were won against such rivals as Woburn, Somerville, and Arlington. Medford also defeated Cambridge in an exciting Homecoming game, the first ever in Mustang history. Exemplary performances were turned in by Quarterback Bobby Baldassari, passing for over 100 yards a game, and Bryce Hopkins and Frank Femino. Medford's defense was padded with the likes of Femino, John Murphy, and DeVeau. The defensive line was led by Joe Resendes, Nick DiMaria, Steve Ciampoli, Andre Straker, John Chiesa, and Tim McCabe, back from an injury earlier this season. Mustang fans also witnessed a 27-12 win over Malden on Thanksgiving, making it 3 straight for Medford.

Lending a helping hand.

The MHS Cheerleaders topped off a promising season, despite their numerous injuries, which prevented participation in many competitions. Co-Captains Nicole DiModica, Melanie Newell, and Debbi Vinci, along with their coach Cheryl Pasinato, led their teammates to a second place finish in a recent competition, losing only to Somerville. In their last competition, they won, beating Somerville. Soon they'll be competing in Florida!

In a season that started with a string of disappointments, they managed to turn themselves around and hand the GBL a decent 4-6 record, under the senior leadership of Joey Roy, and Coaches Frank Jewett and Kevin Hickey.

This year's golf team did not capture a spot in the state tournament, but they pulled off a spectacular showing in the GBL competition. Seniors Joey Roy, Nick Malone, and Junior Ray Brown were chosen as League All-Stars. Roy surpassed even this, when he won the singles competition, making him the first golfer in Mustang history to place first.

"Pain is Temporary, Pride is Forever," is the clever slogan thought up by one of the girls on this years Girls' Soccer team. This also embodies the attitude that the girls collectively held throughout this season, finishing up with one of the better records of the fall season. Their record was an impressive 12-3-2.

For the first time in four years, this team was granted a tourney berth, after years of effort. The team was lead by first year coaches Eva Lang, Mary Indelicato, MaryJo MacDonald, and Adrian King, not to mention the senior leadership of tri-captains Andrea Tringali, Kristen Sullivan, and Maryjane Puccio.

Seniors Karen Morey and Rachael Potts filled in valuable spots on the team, as well as veterans Lauren Maggio and Katie Yaeger. Goalie Kathy Conlan finished with an excellent record, and as a league all-star, as did Anna Angelieri.

Hugh Tuitt moves in to strike.

The boys soccer team, led by captains Brian Benedict, Cody Marnell, and Dave Pinkos, may have had a lack-luster year point-wise, but the young team made up for it with team spirit. A big win for the boys came over Waltham, a shining star for their GBL season. The record does not reflect the great coaching of Ralph McCrotta, or the individual performances of goal tender Mike Villanueva. A rising star to watch is Adam Potts. Look for this team to make a comeback next year.

Waiting for the serve.

The volleyball finished off its second season with good, solid improvement. Senior Co-Captains Katie Rogers and Lisa Regione led their team to a mid-season defeat over Everett's Crimson Tide. Coaches Sandra Cuthbert and Pantanella noted that the girls have mastered skills quickly over the past two years.

This year's team was very young, but also doubled in size. Seven seniors will be sorely missed, but the underclassman, like League All-Star Jeanette Cerrulo, are expected to step up and fill their places.

Katie Rogers digs deep.

Andrea Tringali struts her stuff.

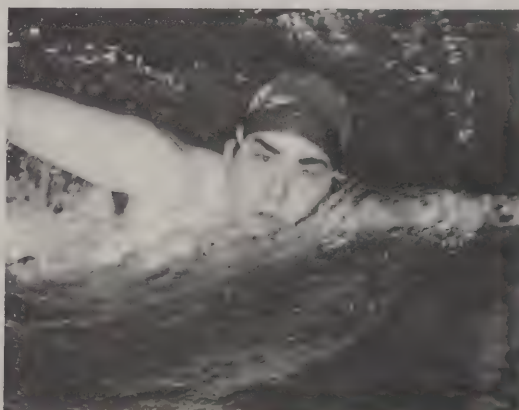

Mustang Swimmers set up a strategy with Coach Judge.

This year's Mustang Swimmers got off to a great start in their season, winning their first meet against Everett, and winning two more against Revere and Cambridge (an all boys team). They were very proud to end the season with a 3-4 record.

The team was led by Tri-Captains Rachel Deveney, Patrice Jewett, and Katie Yaeger, 3 of the 7 returning seniors, which also includes Lauren Maggio, Jeff Notaro, Andrea Tringali, and Lisa Maciejewicz.

The Mustangs hosted the Greater Boston League Championship Meet at which they finished fourth overall. They also hosted the Girls' State Sectional Meet, at which the relay team of Yaeger, Maciejewicz, Jewett, and junior Lauren Doyle competed.

The swim team would also like to thank their parents for all their help this season.

Jeff strokes his way to a win.

The hockey team swarms off the bench.

The Hockey team, coached by Charlie Driscoll, had a superb season. Captained by Joey Roy, who was assisted by Chris Maniatis & Anthony Sarno, the boys went far in the state tournament, losing to Malden Catholic after a 2-day overtime. Also contributing to the team's success were seniors Mike Vienneau, Paul Doyon, and Josh Srebnick, not to mention up & coming Sophomore Josh Hanson.

Jermaine makes a steal.

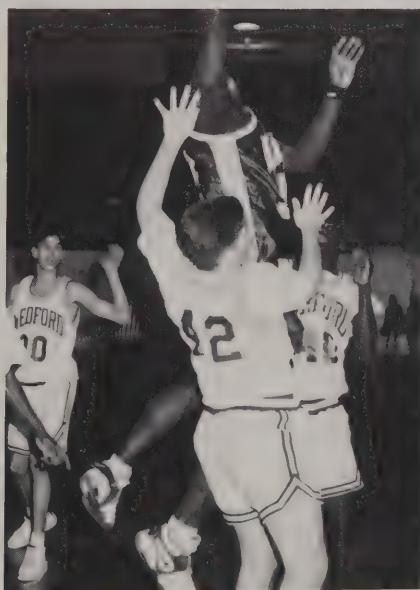

Medford searches for an air ball.

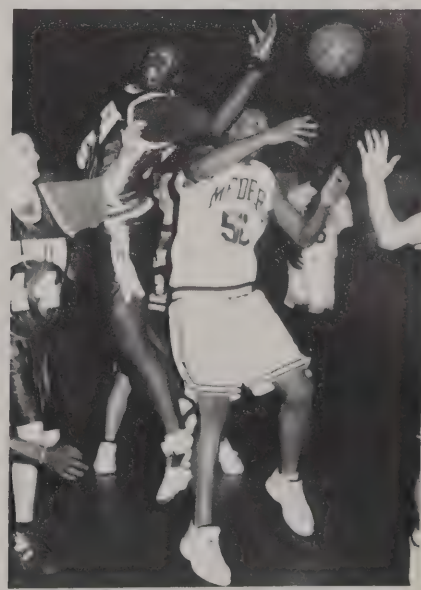

The Boys' Basketball Team had a tremendous season, finishing the year high in GBL standings. They took a loss to powerhouse Cambridge to knock them out of the state tournament, the only glitch in an otherwise fantastic year. The team, led by Captains Justin LoVerme & Jermaine Cannon, and Coached by Tim Ryser, the boys clunked and scored their way into a top position in the GBL. LoVerme was GBL All-Star and due to his superb skills, netted himself a scholarship to Stonehill.

Justin drives for two points.

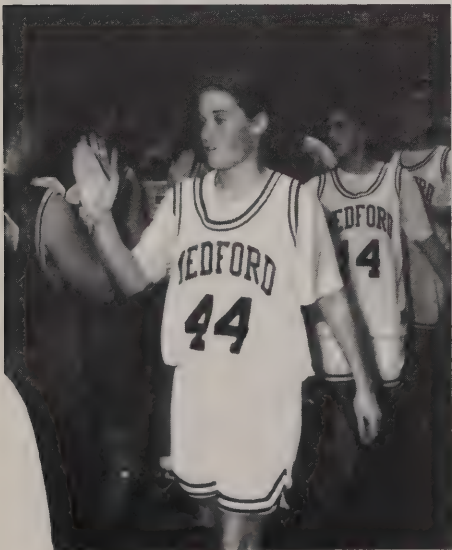

Medford tries for a block.

Lady Mustangs move in for a high five.

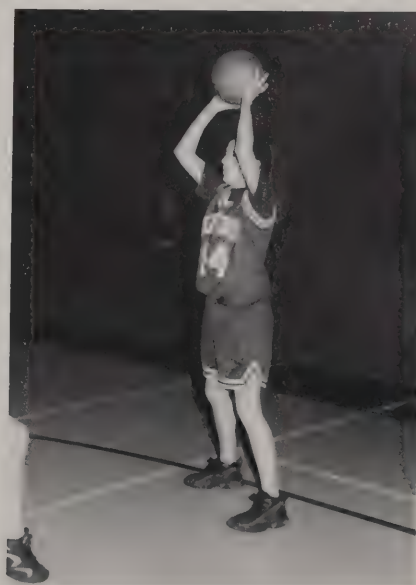

This year's Girls' Basketball Team, coached by Ernie Ardolino, was mainly a rebuilding season. Ardolino said, despite the lackluster year, his 3 captains, Kristen Sullivan, Linda Ciulla, and Christine Cotto, were some of the best he's ever coached. The girls had some spectacular games, beating Arlington Catholic & Revere at home. Senior night was memorable, as Ciulla won the game for the Lady Mustangs, with her foul shooting. The team was helped by many old faces like Seniors Suzanne Bartalini, Jen Carpenito, & Amy Galasso.

Brian Benedict gets ready to win the 600 yard dash.

Despite lacking numbers, the Girls' Indoor Track Team raced to another good season. Led by Captains Jenn Sullivan & Nikki Russell, and Coaches Pottinger & Tommy Lynch, the girls won some key meets. Clutch performances came from Sullivan and Russell, as well as Junior Casey McBride & Sophomore Lauren Kong. One of the most memorable performances of the year was the GBL meet, in which Sullivan, Russell, McBride, and Kong earned a 2nd place finish in the 4x800m race.

The Boys' Indoor Track Team finished their season surprisingly high in the GBL standings, finishing 4th in the standings, led by Captains Pat Toomey, Dave Zazula, Brian Benedict, and Cody Marnell, and Coached by Steve Mascoll, Tom Lynch, and Bill Buldini. The highlights of the team were the 1st place performance of Sophomore sensation Anthony Berriola in the 1,000m at the GBL meet and the consistent performance of Toomey, Benedict, Berriola, and Sophomore Tevon Bowden in the 4x400.

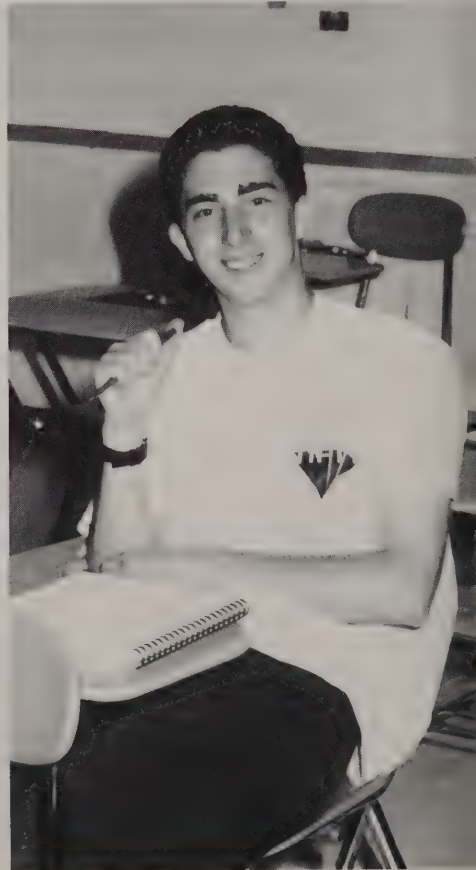

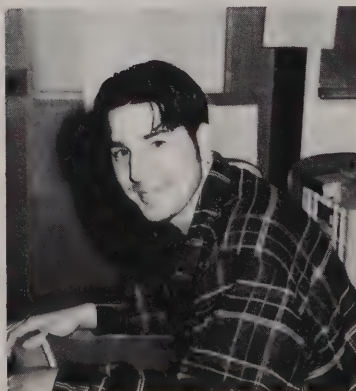

Nikki Russell sets the pace in the mile.

Pat Toomey rounds a turn on the track.

Class Officers

This outstanding group of goal-oriented freshmen were handed the task of organizing and mobilizing the freshman class in a number of school activities, as well as bringing together students from all over Medford. Shown here are Freshman Class President Nanette Ciampa, Vice-President Stacey Diviney, Secretary Stephanie Fleming, and Treasurer Susan Carle.

This talented bunch of sophomore students has successfully completed their first year at MHS. On to bigger and better things, these enterprising sophomores are in the midst of planning the Semi-Formal. These leaders include Sophomore Class President Lauren Kong, Secretary Nakia Spencer, and Treasurer Rosemary Baker.

With only another year to go at MHS, the Junior Class accomplished a number of projects during the past three years, including organization of a successful Sophomore Semi-formal, and Junior Prom. These superb juniors include Junior Class President Tim McCabe, Vice-President Peter Menounos, Secretary Maria Gagliardi, and Treasurer Denise Peterson.
