If an administrator determines that a student’s grooming or clothing violates the dress code the student shall be given the opportunity to correct the problem at school. If not corrected, the student shall be subject to other appropriate discipline consequences as determined by the administrator for the remainder of the day or until the problem is corrected. Repeat dress code violations may result in a more serious disciplinary action. Habitual dress code offenders may be assigned a uniform at the discretion of the administration. Appropriate discipline procedures shall be followed in all cases.
