The editors of this year's Blue and White feel that the usually accepted method of dedicating a high school yearbook to a single member of a high school staff would not adequately express the sentiments of this year's class. With an unusually high number of retiring faculty members whose total service to Medford High School alone totals over two centuries, we feel it proper and fitting to present a "multi dedication" to these veteran teachers who have in toto contributed so greatly to the development and continued progress of our fair school.

In view of their dedication and accomplishments, it is fitting that we, in token appreciation, dedicate our yearbook to:

EBERHARD FABER

To Thee and Thine:

Do harken, youth! Attend my views . . . I promise thee, in blush of rose, that time alone will each one lose in rapt attempt to kent this prose.

In times gone by, the landed lambs gamboled and sought the pleasures of the lea, immune it seemed, befitting bestial seed of kind, from evil and the thoughts of earthly throes. And so today, the winged dove, bebeaked in olive twig, so like innocuous lamb, but yet with grace in space above the earth, with gentleness of kind, mutely cries for peace and love throughout this Master-ordered universe.

The wolf and lamb, as such contrasting, live in image everlasting, now enfeathered, now emplumed, by hawk and dove . . . war's constriction's peace' affliction.

And thus, no matter what the circumstance, no matter when the time, no matter by whose word of mouth, no matter how the rhyme, the facts are these . . . in record vie . . . from onetime whence and now meanwhile, the voices cry, some muted still, for peace that must be yet the will of mass mankind of different bents and forced binds . . . for freedom's sake. This task is thine, young friends of mine, for thee to take, for thee to make . . . for freedom's sake!

Forsooth, thou sail, in times more early than the single grays that sprout atop the hairy sparseness of my pate, across the seas of fathoms deep and in the aerospace once shrouded in mystique.

Polonius, Lord Chamberlain of Hamlet's Court, I think would now say to his loved Laertes that coral mysteries and reefs, and even that of waters far more deep, and brilliant stars and errant satellites of space, of bodies heavenly in distance close to Peter's Gates, are there for bravest men to man the newest ships and seek out place in either space to find those fortunes fetching to the fearless face, and, with such hereto undiscovered natural spoils, purge the plagues and cleanse the earth of pollute air and stream and hearth.

Godspeed to thee and to thine peers as mankind's mantle to thee nears, for thee can win and overcome what those before you left undone.

I think Polonius, as now with me, would favor thee with memories. For he and I, some world's apart in life's design, I'm certain of mind opine, that "character" is prize complete, the noble goal of trial and feat.

Examine first the tools you have that God's bestowed upon you . . . talents and abilities should never slip from personal view; develop these as best you can in every daily strife, and satisfaction thou wilt find throughout thine entire life.

I, too, suggest no evil speak, keep tongue in cheek, entomb some thoughts in mind alone, but when thou speaks, articulate, but e'en more, elucidate!

Anticipate, discriminate, and free thine hearts of any hate. Know friend from foe, for friends are few, thus hold each in proper value. Disport thineself in daily life as if all eyes were on thee.

Listen, yes, with open mind and to the test of patience, but do not act until thou knows it is in thine full conscience. Be slow to trust, but, when thou dost, dost so without suspicion, and let altruism share thine personal ambition. Respect thineself, respect thine peer, and walk as if thou knew not fear. When thou art right, and know thou'rt right, give naught away without a fight; and when thou fights, if fight thou must, be fair, be clean, and, winning, just. Be not miser and not spender, pay for what to thee is rendered.

But stay, young friends, permit me now this final quoted presage I trust in hopeful climax to my well-intentioned message:

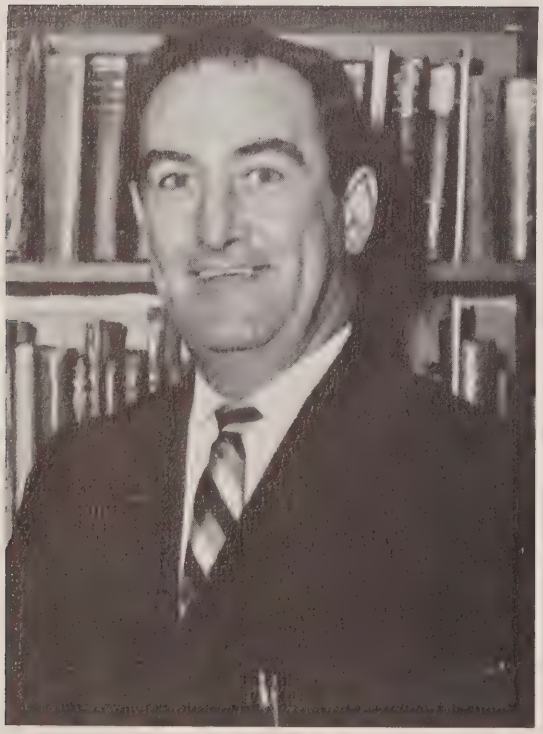

"THIS ABOVE ALL—TO THINE OWN SELF BE TRUE, AND IT MUST FOLLOW, AS THE NIGHT THE DAY, THOU CANST NOT THEN BE FALSE TO ANY MAN."

Both blessings and best wishes I bid to thee and thine . . . in skies above, on land below, and in and on the brine. May Heaven smile on ventures yet that each may now opine, and may the sun of summer months shed warmth on thee and thine!

William A. McCormack, Headmaster

CLASS ADVISORS

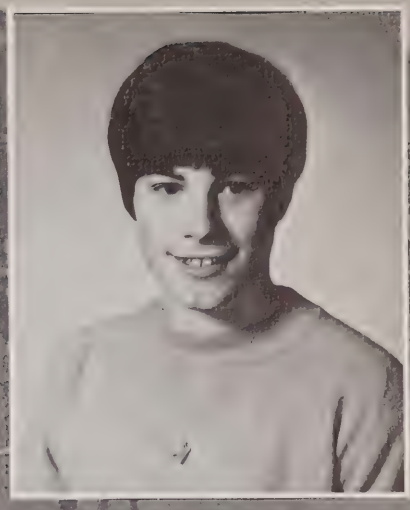

Successful class activities require much time and planning in their direction. With understanding and dedication our class advisors, Mrs. Eberle and Mr. Brady, have contributed much time and effort to make these years memorable and fruitful. They have guided us with high ideals; they have motivated us with stimulating ideas; they have given us an active social life; and they have allowed us to be self-directive in our attempts to function as a class.

We, the class of 1969, feeling greatly indebted to Mrs. Eberle and Mr. Brady, would now like to express sincere appreciation to them for all that they have done for us.

As each member of the class of 1969 prepares for his commencement, let each in his own way resolve that he shall always hold strongly to those experiences which have so undeniably helped to mold him during his matriculation at Medford High School. Though graduation brings the infinitely diverse and new roads that it must, let there be a place reserved in each individual to entrench firmly the sights and the sounds and the meanings which are so strong now in the immediacy of the present. Let us try to make time stand still so that these moments will be forever present in the recesses of our memory.

Although the corridors of our school empty and our steps echo but faintly, should there also be an emptying from our minds and our hearts of those who have meant so much in these, our formative years? Will the novelty and the attraction of such new vistas as we must inevitably meet supplant the familiar and proven qualities of our fair Medford town? Let us resolve to hold fast to those whose mettle need no further test and to this, our town, which is surely a part of us as we are a part of it. Let us truly "grapple them unto 'our souls' with hoops of steel."

THIS MAGIC MOMENT

This Magic Moment

This golden night belongs to us, to treasure till the dawn
Untill the shadows slip away, and all the stars are gone.

Thoughts of this night will leave us never,
the happiness we feel is supreme.
And these moments that we share together,
seem all part of a wonderful dream.

MEDFORD 39 WATERTOWN 14

Led by Ken Rideout's three touchdowns and the hard running of Phil Valdario, the Mustangs opened defense of their Class A Championship at Watertown. The hosts were a determined team but lacked the size and depth to cope with Medford's big linemen. Other Medford standouts were quarterback John Adduci and defensive linemen Ernie Brown and Ed O'Brien.

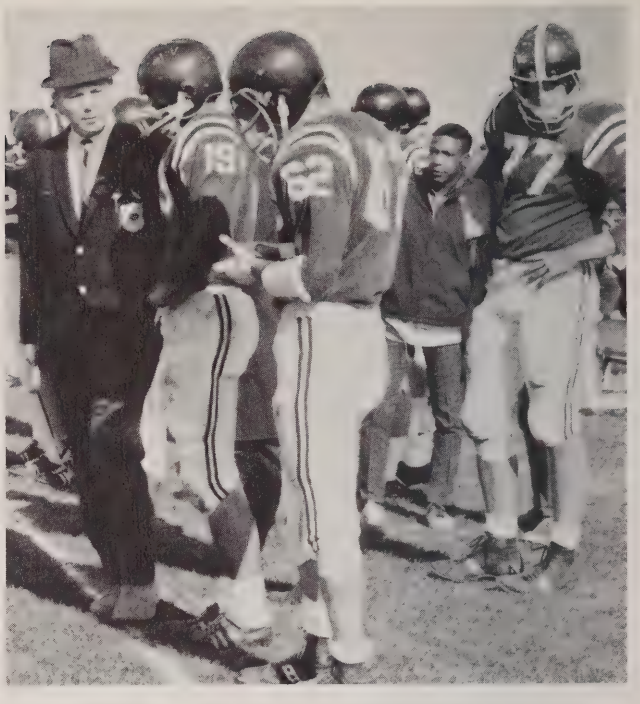

MEDFORD 33 CHELSEA 6

Once again the offense kept rolling and the defense remained immoveable as the Mustangs proved too big and too strong for their opponent. Ken Rideout again led the scoring parade with three touchdowns, including a 90 yard runback of the opening kickoff.

MEDFORD 19 SOMERVILLE 35

In the fifty-ninth meeting of these arch rivals, Somerville broke Medford's eleven game winning streak, 35 to 19. Scoring for Medford were Ken Rideout on a 95 yard kickoff return, Henry Dorazio on a 2 yard run, and Pancho Webb on a 56 yard pass from John Adduci. Playing strong games for Medford were Bob Cranitch, Ed O'Brien, and George Keenan.

MEDFORD 0 NORTH QUINCY 14

The Red Raiders sloshed their way to victory in a game played in the pouring rain. North did all its scoring in the first half. Medford proved poor mudders by giving up the ball six times on fumbles and twice on intercepted passes. Medford was hampered by the loss of Ernie Brown and George Keenan to injuries. This game was the first scoreless effort by the Mustangs in three seasons.

MEDFORD 7 EVERETT 12

The Mustangs dropped their third straight game by a score of 12 to 7 to a strong Everett eleven. Medford's score came on a pass from John Adduci to Phil Valdario. Medford had several other scoring opportunities but were hurt by four fumbles and costly penalties in key situations.

MEDFORD 12 NEWTON 24

A powerful Newton eleven, which eventually became Class A Co-Champ, scored the first three times it got the ball and then had to hang on the rest of the way as the Mustangs made a scrappy effort to come back. Junior John Aquino performed creditably at quarterback, throwing a touchdown pass. Ken Rideout, Mike Kelley, and Hank Dorazio played well in the losing effort.

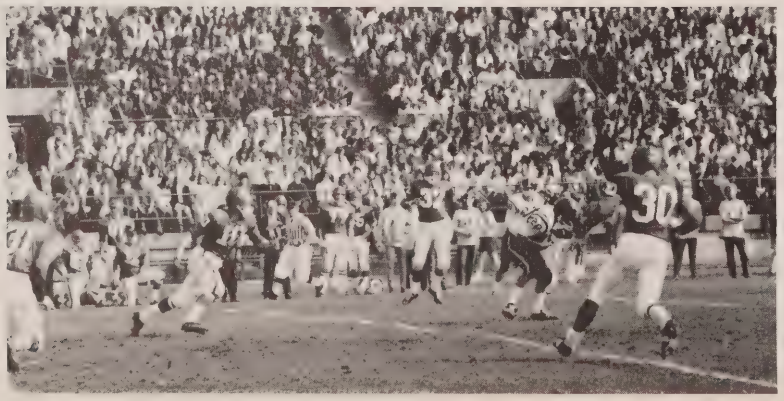

MEDFORD 25 REVERE 14

The Mustangs, playing what was probably their strongest game of the season, upset a highly regarded Revere squad by the score of 25 to 14. Ken Rideout scored two touchdowns and Pancho Webb caught two touchdown passes, one from Rideout and the other from John Adduci. Medford's defensive game was led by the efforts of Ed O'Brien and Len D'Angelo.

MEDFORD 7 QUINCY 14

In their poorest effort of the season, the Mustangs were able to do little well, as they lost 14 to 7 to the Quincy Presidents. Ken Rideout's brilliant 90 yard return of the second half kickoff was the one big offensive moment of the bleak afternoon. Playing well in the Mustang secondary were John Adduci and junior Maury Carroll.

MEDFORD 32 MALDEN 14

On this bleak Thanksgiving morning, Malden scored two quick touchdowns and things didn't look good for our Mustangs. However, in the second quarter the Mustangs came to life and poured it on the Golden Tornadoes by the score of 32-14, the most points scored in the classic since 1892. Ken Rideout led the Mustangs with a record setting four touchdowns. Hank Dorazio, despite a leg injury, scored Medford's other touchdown and had to be carried off the field after his score. Mike Kelley, Phil Valdario, and John Adduci also stood out on offense.

Medford wasn't all offense, however, as the defense set up several scores and held Malden scoreless for the final three quarters. Dan DeCourcey blocked a punt and then jumped on the loose ball to set up a Mustang score. Co-Captain George Kennan recovered a fumble to stop a Malden drive and start Medford on a drive of its own and late in the game, Cliff Campbell picked off a pass to thwart Malden's last ditch effort to score. Other defensive standouts were linemen John Lydon, Ernie Brown, and Ed O'Brien. This big win, greatly eased the pain of Coach McKinnon's first losing season since coming to Medford. The Mustangs were a credit to Medford High with their sportsmanship and determined play throughout the season.

SOCCER HIGHLIGHTS 1969

MEDFORD 3 NEWTON SOUTH 1

The booters broke out fast in their title defense as co-captains Rick Shannon and Max Abecassis accounted for Medford's markers. The defense showed the signs of future sturdiness. This was Coach Stillmans' 250th victory.

MEDFORD 0 LINCOLN-SUDBURY 2

The well-oiled offense and the aggressive defense of these traditional rivals were too much for Medford. If not for strong defensive games from the fullbacks and goalie Bill Deehan it could have been a rout.

MEDFORD 4 BROCKTON 2

John Dovidio played a fine game at halfback and Billy Jay assisted allowing Medford's offense to enjoy its most productive day. Dave Nichols and Rick Shannon each had two goals. Billy Hansford also was a standout. The only thing that could have been wrong was that Max Abecassis was also on the sideline with a severely bruised leg.

MEDFORD 1 LINCOLN-SUDBURY 0

It would be unfair to name one standout in what was one of the finest soccer games in Medford High history. It was a total team effort. The defense was tremendous and waited patiently for a break. It came when Hugo Abecassis fed Rick Shannon and Ricky came in all alone and blasted it by the L.S. goalie. After that the defense was like a brick wall. Bill Deehan was impressive in the Mustang goal. The events of the day were summed up best when Coach Stillman was told "we won this one for you."

MEDFORD 2 NEWTON 0

Bill Deehan recorded his fifth shutout as Medford defeated Newton on Newton's field. Newton was never really in the game and Coach Stillman gave all his boys a chance to get in the final game of the year. Rick Shannon recorded both goals.

The Blue and White soccer team of 1968 was a pleasant surprise for Coach Stillman. The championship team of a year before had been seriously depleted by graduation. There were five returning lettermen, but only two had been starters. Led by co-captains Ricky Shannon and Max Abecassis the Mustangs weren't expected to have a good season. However, by making up for a lack of experience with hustle and team play, the booters came in second in the suburban soccer league with an 8-4 record. They were 9-5 overall.

The high point of the season was the victory over previously undefeated Lincoln-Sudbury. The unsung heroes of the season, the defense, played inspired soccer. Fullbacks Bill Jay and John Picone backboned this defense with assistance from Gary King and Jeff Stanwood.

Four Mustangs were picked to represent Medford on the league all-star team—Rick Shannon, Bill Jay, Max Abecassis, and goalie Bill Deehan.

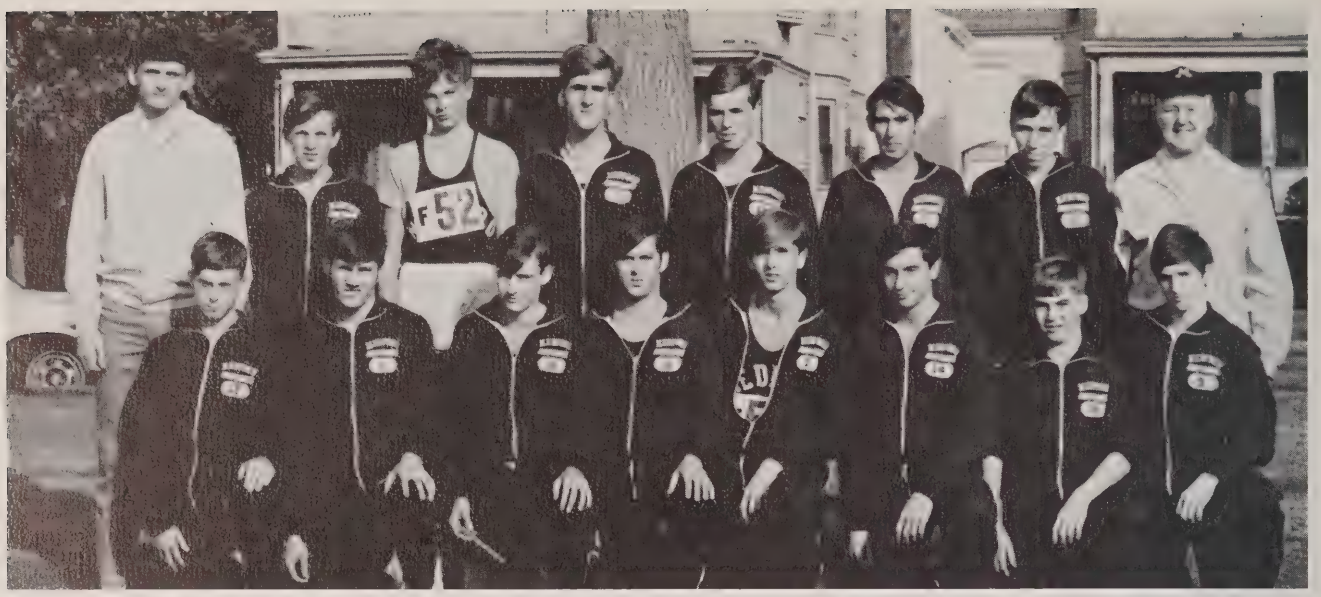

Coach "Bud" Stillman announced his retirement after 30 years as a coach. He retires with a gift from his 1968 soccer team, his 258th victory.

CROSS COUNTRY

The Mustang cross country team of 1968 enjoyed one of its best seasons in years as the team finished in third spot in the Suburban Cross Country League with a record of five wins and two losses. The two losses were against league champion Newton and runner-up Arlington. Wins were achieved against Malden, Everett, Revere, Newton South, and Waltham.

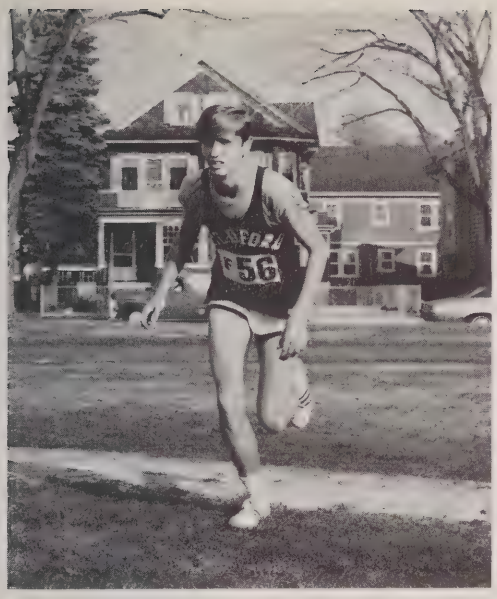

The varsity was captained by Robert Landry and Joseph Fortunato. Martin Murphy was elected captain of next year's team. Members of the team who earned varsity letters are in addition to the above: Bryan Bartsch, Jay Hartnett, Joseph Marotta, Kenneth Petrucci, Vincent Toscano, Gerald Irving, and Stephen Mahoney. Members of the Junior Varsity squad who made their letters include Arthur Bowdridge, William Burke, Peter Grande, Ralph LoPilato, and James Wantman.

Coach Langley will have a nucleus of six returning lettermen along with his J.V. runners next year and looks forward to another winning team which could prove to be outstanding in the newly-formed Greater Boston League.

HOCKEY

As the Blue and White goes to press, the Mustangs are in third place in the G.B.L. and are still in the running for a tournament berth. Led by Captain Doug Steeves, Pancho Webb, and Ricky Shannon, the team has compiled a fine 8-2-1 record, with the only losses coming at the hands of first place Brookline. An obvious factor in the Mustangs' success has been the outstanding goal tending of Bob Henry, who up to the present has blanked five of Medford's opponents. Other standouts have been Jimmy Harris, Bruce Vienneau, Ronnie Cornella, and Dave Quinn.

This season was highlighted by the two wins over Arlington. This was the first time in 22 years that the same team had defeated Arlington twice in the same season. In the first game, Pancho Webb scored Medford's only goal in the first period and then the Mustangs, paced by defensemen Ricky Shannon and Steve Devoe and goalie Bob Henry, refused to allow Arlington a score. In the second encounter, Arlington scored first; but Medford came back with second period goals by Steve Devoe and Pancho Webb and with its strong third period defensive work held on to win, 2 to 1.

This year's hockey team has proven to be a determined and scrappy unit and has never shown signs of quitting in any of its games. We wish it the best of luck in its quest of tournament qualification.

Led by Co-Captains Chris Brennan and Billy Jay, the Mustangs have compiled an 11 win and 4 loss record and a very good chance of earning a Tech Tournament berth. As the Blue and White goes to press, the team must win one of its two remaining games in order to qualify for the tournament. This year's record, the best of any Medford team in the last decade, is a testimonial to the effort and determination of the coaching staff and the players.

One of the highlights of the season was the first win against Quincy, which saw the Mustangs explode for their most powerful offensive display of the year, 93 to 52. Another was the first Everett win, which saw the Mustangs come back from a ten-point halftime deficit to go on to win, 67 to 50. Billy Jay led the way with 18 points followed by Reggie Graham's 14, all scored in the second half, while Ernie Brown controlled the boards. The most satisfying win, however, has to be the 70 to 57 victory over Malden which avenged an earlier loss to the Golden Tornadoes. Paul Hodnett scored 18 points and was followed by Bill Deehan with 15. Reggie Graham and Deehan dominated the boards, while Ernie Brown shut off Malden's big scorer, Abare.

This year's Mustang quintet contains only four seniors, so Coach Tremblay will have seven returning players from this year's club. Things look bright for Mustang basketball for the rest of this season and for several seasons to come.

As the yearbook goes to press the Mustang track team is currently in second place in the North Shore Indoor Track League. The record of the team at this point is a winning one with a 3 and 2 record. The Mustangs opened the season successfully with a 46 to 31 victory over Lowell. In their second meet the track team ran into an exceptionally strong Andover team and lost. Medford lost its third meet on a squeaker to Keith 39 to 38. However the Mustangs quickly recovered by bombing Haverhill and Salem by lopsided scores.

Captained by Bob Puopolo and consistent Bob Landry, the team has improved steadily all season. Outstanding individual performers were Bruce Kurth in the 300 yd. run and and high jump, Bob Landry in the hurdles and high jump, Jeff Stanwood and Jerry Irving in the 600, Bryan Bartsch in the 1000, miler Marty Murphy, and shotputter Caesar Del Trecco.

Led by first year Coach Art McKinnon and assistant John Pitzi, the Medford High School track team of 1969 has kept a fine tradition of winning seasons.

HOUSE OF DELEGATES

President: Arthur Rogers
Vice-President: Martha Whelan
Secretary: Penelope Denninger
Treasurer: Hugo Abecassis

The House of Delegates is the lower branch of the Student Council. The membership is comprised of a representative from each homeroom. An alternate delegate is also selected. The delegate's job is to go to the meetings of the Student Council and represent his or her homeroom to the Student Government. Thus each member or the student body has a voice in the Student Government through his delegate.

Because of the fire, the laws and constitution of the Student Government were lost; this year the House of Delegates completed rewriting them under the leadership of the senior homeroom members and the officers of the Senior Class. As a result, this senior class will be able to leave the school a strong, viable Student Government that should guide the student body for many years to come.

SENIOR ADVISORY COUNCIL

MRS. EBERLE

MR. BRADY

The Senior Advisory Council is composed of members of the Class of 1969 who have satisfactorily met high academic standards. Included in the group are the Senior Class officers and a member of each homeroom elected to the Council. These pupils, representing the Senior Class, assist in organizing class events including the Senior Prom, the Senior Reception, and Class Day. Under the direction of the advisors, Mrs. Eberle and Mr. Brady, the Council has sponsored successful class activities.

JUNIOR CLASSICAL LEAGUE

The Junior Classical League is a national organization composed of those students with a genuine interest for the culture of Ancient Greece and Rome. Under the direction of Mrs. Kavanaugh, the league holds discussions of the relationship of our society to that of ancient times. Plans start early in the year for the annual banquet where students dress in togas. This banquet is a fitting climax to the year's activities.

CHEERLEADERS

To become a member of the Medford High School Cheerleaders is probably one of the most competitive activities at Medford High School. These girls practice several times each week from April of their junior year until the completion of their senior year. Academic achievement is almost as important as physical co-ordination to a member of our cheering squad. Head-cheerleader Loretta Salipante and her two co-heads, Linda Meehan and Leslie Gurney, set a pace throughout the school year that kept the entire squad "jumping."

The girls energetically cheered our boys on to victories in football, basketball, hockey, and soccer. The pep rally before the annual Thanksgiving game with Malden proved to be highly successful due to the vivacity of the cheerleaders.

LIBRARY STAFF

The Library Staff consists of girls volunteering their time for shelving books, checking and filing catalog cards, preparing new books for circulation, recording periodicals, taking charge of circulation desk, and helping other students. As an important part of a school educational life, the library must always be in order. The library staff deserves much credit. BLUE AND WHITE

The primary function of the Blue and White is to compile and edit a lasting record of the activities of the students of Medford High School. Through the year the staff is busy assimilating the humorous and serious aspects which make the life of a high school student something to be remembered. The staff has spent many hours both in and out of school preparing the book of memories which you now read.

We are deeply indebted to Mr. James Sweeney and William Jay and John Dovidio, our editors, who deserve unlimited credit. Without their relentless efforts, the yearbook of 1969 would not be such an outstanding memory of our high school years.

ITALIAN CLUB

The main purpose of the Italian Club is to further interest in and to increase the knowledge of Italian culture and civilization. During regular meetings, the club members had illustrated talks on Italy—its major cities, artists, and other cultural attractions. In May the traditional Italian Club banquet provided a happy conclusion to a rewarding year.

The French Club is people meeting people. When a person walks through the door into our meetings, he is leaving the culture of the United States behind. French is our ultimate goal! At this moment French is the language we speak. The lectures given are intended to coincide with the topic highlighted for that particular assemblage. Slides are shown and experiences with the country of France are shared. A diversification of facts, figures, games, songs, plays, and even pastries lend to our atmosphere. Programs this year will include the preparation and presentation of puppet shows in French. The year's activities will conclude with the entire club's banqueting at a French restaurant.

MUSTANG NEWS

The Mustang News, a Medford High School student publication, has been in operation for only five years. Already it has been given outstanding awards praising both the students and the advisor, Mr. Selvitella. The awards include 1st place rating New England Press Association and special award for Coverage of the Fire.

More honorable than the award is the enthusiasm all staff members possess to work daily for a good publication. One such example is the November Football Edition featuring the Mustang gridiron players and the accounts of the games. Such editions as this and others attribute to the newspaper's success.

Advisor: MR. RUSSO

The Future Teachers Club is an extra-curricular activity for any student planning on going into the field of teaching. Acquainting its members with teaching and all that concerns it is the main function of this club. A guest speaker sometimes attends the meetings answering any questions which the club might have. Enrolled with the Future Teachers of America, the club is a benefit for those wishing to enter the teaching profession.

MATH CLUB

The Math Club was formed for those students interested in learning more in the field of mathematics. The first half of the year was spent in weekly sessions for reviewing for college boards. The rest of the year was spent on such topics as calculus, statistics, and probability topics, which are not available to all. With the aid of the advisor, Thomas Kerr, and the officers, the club participated in many trips. Field trips to different math centers were held. These and other activities proved both interesting and profitable for those who participated.

A FRIEND

Before you accept that first job . . .

Look over your employer as carefully as he does you

What's the Company like anyway? Would I be proud to work there? Reputation for square dealing with employees? Pleasant surroundings?

Will I be working with others my own age? Are they friendly? Do they socialize after hours?

Will the boss be reasonable? Appreciate good, hard work, but won't explode if I make a mistake?

Will I make a decent week's pay? Have a chance for raises, advancement, more responsibility? How about fringe benefits?

Is the work challenging? I had what it takes to get through high school. Will they give me a chance to use my brains?

Note: Many young men and women in this area can answer "Yes" to these questions. They work for New England Telephone.

Why not talk with our employment interviewer soon . . . before you graduate? Ask your Guidance Counselor to tell you when and where to apply.
