

Strategic Planning Meeting 3

October 30, 2024

for the
MORRIS
SCHOOL DISTRICT

What is Strategic Planning

Strategic Planning is a districtwide roadmap developed with input from the school community to advance student achievement through focused multi-year goals and actions.

Components of Strategic Planning

Mission Statement

It is the mission of the Morris School District to empower each student to ascend academically, socially, and emotionally by providing equal access to continuous opportunities for achieving academic excellence, developing meaningful relationships, and becoming future ready.

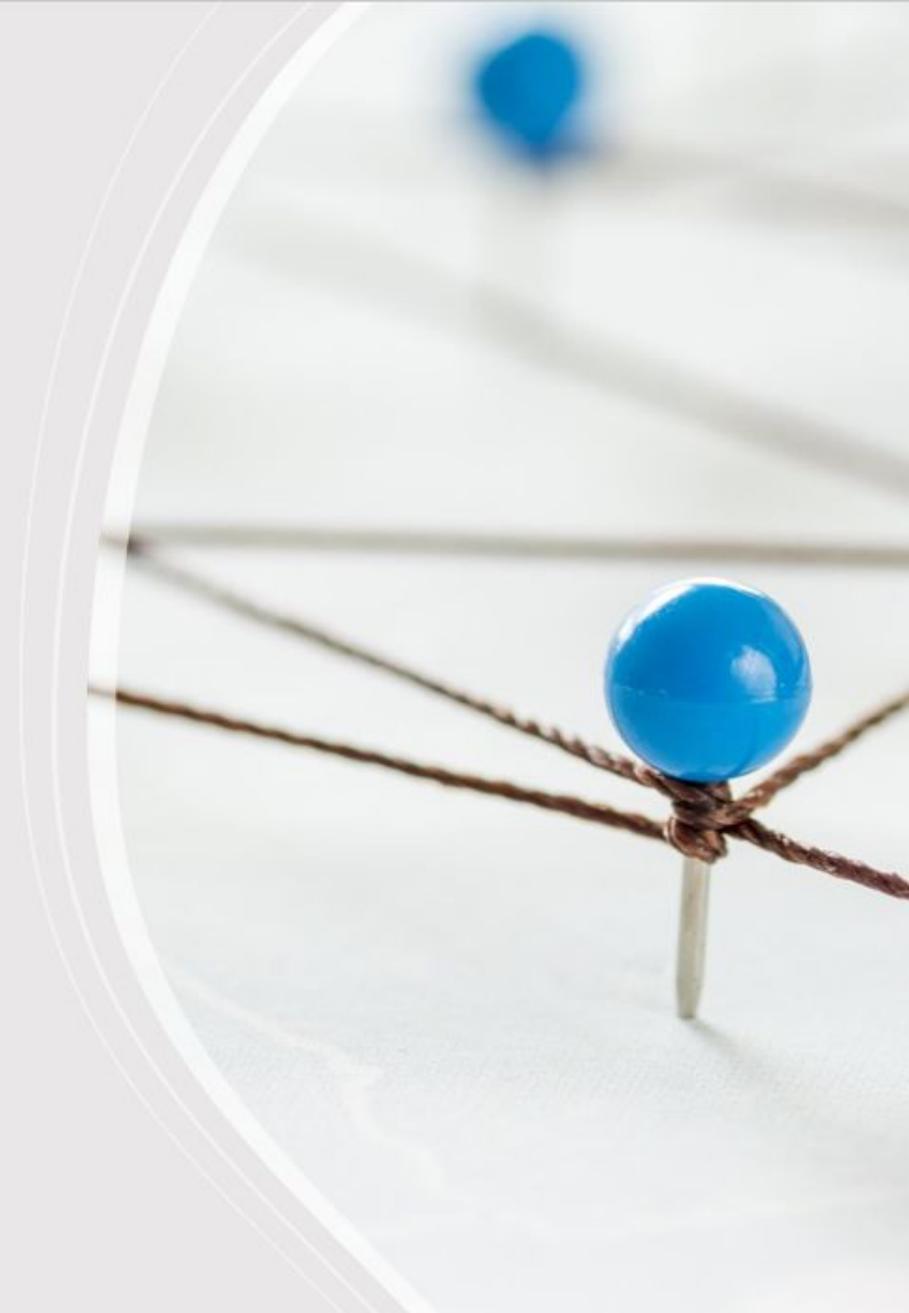

Roadmap Starting Point

Data collection – Meetings 1 & 2
Identified district strengths, challenges, opportunities, and 5-year visions.

5 themes emerged from the data that will serve as the goal areas.

The data is sorted by those themes to inform the development of the goal statements and objectives (the roadmap) to move the district forward in the next 5 years.

Goal Areas

1. Academic Programming, Teaching & Learning
2. Learning Beyond the Classroom
3. Building Optimal Environments for Learning
4. Communication to Foster Community & Partnerships
5. Career Readiness Skills

Steps to Writing Goal Statements

We will review:

- Definition of terms
- Components of a goal statement

Goal Writing Process

Sample Goal Statement & Objectives:

Goal Area: Facilities & Safety

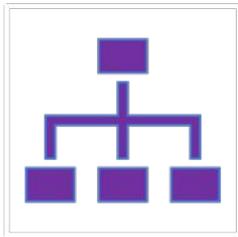

Goal Statement: Create a safe and sustainable learning environment equipped to meet 21st century needs.

Objectives:

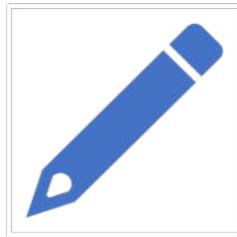

- Upgrade facilities to be more energy and cost efficient.
- Increase internal and external security at all schools.
- Upgrade existing facilities to be more structurally modernized.
- Provide appropriate learning spaces.

Tonight's Small Group Work

Using data from Meetings 1 & 2 – strengths, challenges, and visions, sorted by your goal area

Write one broad goal statement

Write 3 to 5 objectives that support the goal but are still big picture.

Think strategic!
Avoid the “how.”

Introduce yourself

Allow everyone to contribute

Focus on the big picture

Come to a consensus

Small Group Work

Logistics

A volunteer is needed to record your group's work on the post-it sheet.

Spend 50 minutes in small group. Will go back into large group to report out.

Select someone to report out your group's work to the large group.
