Elise Eskew Sparks (“Dr. ES”) has served as the Decatur High School Choral Director since 2012, when the total choral enrollment at DHS was just over 30. Currently, she teaches more than 190 students in both chorus and musical theater. A North Caroline native, Elise has resided in Atlanta since 2003. She holds a Masters of Sacred Music in choral conducting from Emory University and a Ph.D. in Music Education from Georgia State University. Elise has served as the Director of Choral Activities at Agnes Scott College since 2008.