

35th Annual Conference
March 10-13, 2010
San José Convention Center
San José, CA

One of CAFE's main goal is to maintain and refine professional development opportunities for educators, parents, community members and organizations. The Annual Conference is a major educational event for school and university personnel, parents and other individuals who work with all students and specifically English Learners and other second language learners. Over the years, the CAFE Conference has gained a reputation for providing participants with quality, in-depth and innovative professional development. The goal for CAFE 2010 is that, as educator for second language learners, we draw from our rich resources and assume a major role in promoting and supporting educational excellence for all in California.
